

QUESTIONS

How do you feel about living in (INSERT YOUR CITY, STATE, or COUNTRY)

When you think about hope, what and/or who comes to mind?

How might social conflict affect your outlook, attitudes and behaviours?

Would you feel safe living in a community where you are in the minority?

Does your community/area have a mix of people from different backgrounds/cultures/political groups? What do they have in common?

Are young people influenced by others to be prejudiced (sectarian, racist, sexist, homophobic, etc.)?

What do you like and dislike about your tradition, culture, ethnicity, or identity?

How do the conflicts in my society affect my relationships?

Do you think that young people are more open to mixing across differences than adults are?

Do you feel comfortable and confident to challenge negative views and attitudes towards other communities and people?

What would your ideal society look like in 20 years' time?

Are the people who don't share your faith, race, or culture different than you?

Where have you seen examples of conflict on-line?

Does our education system support an understanding of our different 'others'?

Are you optimistic/hopeful about the way your country/region is going?

Do you see yourself 'here' in the next 5 years?

Is it easy to have conversations about our differences?

Would you vote for political parties that are different from your political background?

What might attract young people towards violent/extreme political involvement?

How can we increase belonging between people
from different faiths, races, and cultures?

