WELCOME TO THE FESTIVAL

Dear Festival Guests,

On behalf of the Rehoboth Beach Film Society, we are delighted to welcome you to the 27th Annual Rehoboth Beach International Film Festival (RBIFF). For nearly three decades, this festival has stood as the Delmarva region's premier celebration of cinema, bringing together audiences, filmmakers, and industry leaders from around the world.

This year's program is one of our most ambitious to date. Over the course of seven days, you will experience more than 100 films spanning features, documentaries, and shorts, along with world-class panels, tributes, and special events. From Oscar contenders and U.S. premieres to international submissions and Delaware-made stories, RBIFF 2025 is a true showcase of the artistry and diversity that define contemporary film.

We are honored to host extraordinary talents both on screen and in person. This year's lineup includes performances from Ralph Fiennes, Kevin Bacon, Kyra Sedgwick, Ray Romano, Guy Pearce, Holland Taylor, Amanda Peet, Steve Zahn, and Ethan Hawke, as well as groundbreaking documentaries like Arrest the Midwife and For the Living. Our international spotlight shines on acclaimed films from Finland, Iceland, Estonia, Türkiye, Germany, Italy, Hungary, UK, Taiwan and Uruguay, works that expand our perspective and spark meaningful dialogue.

Beyond the screen, our panels and conversations offer rare opportunities to engage directly with industry leaders. We invite you to explore sessions on writing, directing, and cinematography featuring Perry Lang, Barry Wetcher, Tony C. Jannelli, and David Morrison, among others. Whether you are an emerging filmmaker or a lifelong cinephile, these discussions promise insight and inspiration.

Of course, RBIFF is also about connection — between artists, audiences, and communities. From our tribute evenings and LGBTQ+ spotlight programming to the Glass Wave Awards Breakfast Ceremony, every event is designed to celebrate stories that matter and the people who bring them to life.

We extend our deepest gratitude to our sponsors, volunteers, and community partners, whose support makes this festival possible. Most importantly, we thank you, our festival goers, for your passion for film and for joining us in Rehoboth Beach as we mark this milestone year.

Enjoy the films, the conversations, and the magic of cinema.

Warmly,

Dave Bever

MISSION

RBFS celebrates independent film, supports emerging filmmakers, and engages the community through meaningful cinematic experiences that inform, inspire, and connect.

VISION

To be a premier destination where the community, audiences, and filmmakers come together to celebrate the art of cinema — fostering education, creative collaboration, and cultural connection through the power of independent film.

This organization is supported, in part, by a grant from the Delaware Division of the Arts, a state agency, in partnership with the National Endowment for the Arts. The Division promotes Delaware arts events on www.DelawareScene.com.

RBFS is Standards for Excellence® accredited, having met all the requirements for best practices in nonprofit management.

11:00 am - 12:59 pm JEMS

SOUTH KOREA | 119 min

Dir. Chanho Lee

Hyowon and Eunseo flee to Seoul chasing fragile dreams—one to act, the other simply to survive. In a basement sanctuary, they grasp at hope while drifting apart under the city's relentless weight. As Hyowon learns that acting is "the art of embodying another's suffering," the two young women confront unspoken pain, unfulfilled longing, and the question of what it truly means to carry another's sorrow.

THE WORK...A CONVERSATION (DOCUMENTARY)

11:30 am - 1:00 pm JEMS Q & A

USA | 90 min

Dir. Eve Etta Annenberg

Three old friends — ages 82, 86, and 90 — gather for what may be their last lunch. But these aren't just any tea-sipping Brits: they were the legendary trio who shaped Juilliard's Drama Division, auditioning, training (and sometimes expelling) generations of stars from Robin Williams and Patti LuPone to Laura Linney and Adam Driver. Fierce, funny, and unapologetically themselves, they reflect on a legacy equal parts brilliance and brutality, joined by former students and colleagues who carry their voices — and lessons — to this day.

TRUE COLORS: CONVERSATIONS IN GENDER (DOCUMENTARY) CANADA | 102 min

12:00 pm - 1:43 pm UUSD Q & A

Dir. Herbert Joseph Bonifacio

A pediatrician-turned-filmmaker turns the camera on himself as he grapples with the emotional, ethical, and political fault lines of providing gender-affirming care to youth just as a global wave of legislation and a landmark 2025 U.S. Supreme Court ruling threaten to silence it altogether.

FOLLOWING IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF MY ANCESTORS (DOCUMENTARY)

1:20 pm - 2:20 pm JEMS Q & A

GERMANY | 60 min

Dir. Ute Köhler, Katherine Wermke

In this deeply personal documentary, filmmaker Ute Köhler retraces the extraordinary migration journey of her ancestors — from southern Germany along the Danube to Galicia (today Poland) and later Volhynia (Ukraine). Combining her own hike and bike trip with rare family testimony and expert insights, the film uncovers the struggles and resilience of German colonists across centuries of upheaval. A moving blend of personal quest and historical reflection, it celebrates memory, migration, and the courage to preserve one's roots. The Stockholm City Film Festival July 2025, Award Winner/ Best Woman Filmmaker.

MY UNCLE JENS

4:00 pm - 5:38 pm LEWES ELEMENTARY

NORWAY | 98 min

Dir. Brwa Vahabpou

Akam, a young literature teacher, lives a comfortable life in Oslo until his estranged uncle from the Iranian part of Kurdistan comes for a surprise visit. Despite limited space in his shared flat with friends, Akam feels obligated to invite his uncle to stay for a few days. However, his uncle quickly makes himself at home and shows no sign of leaving. Torn between his sense of familial duty and growing tension in the flat, Akam begins to suspect there's more to his uncle's visit than just a casual trip. What follows is a series of revelations and unexpected events that could have life changing consequences for them both.

MY BAKERY IN BROOKLYN

4:15 pm - 5:55 pm UUSD

USA | 100 min

Dir. Gustavo Ron

Vivien and Chloe are two very different cousins living in Brooklyn who have been inseparable ever since they were children--at least, until recently. Their Aunt Isabelle's sudden passing has left them with a challenging inheritance: their aunt's quaint Boulangerie, named Isabelle's. Vivien, who has postponed her dream trip to Europe to help run the shop, wants to keep things traditional, but Chloe, who works as assistant to Fernando, a chef for a popular daytime-TV cooking show, feels that they should put a modern spin on things. But when the bank reveals that the Boulangerie is in danger of being foreclosed, Vivien and Chloe must put down the baking mitts to preserve their family's legacy.
