

Instructional Coaching Institute

Coaches have the ability to transform the culture of teaching and learning in schools. Many coaches struggle as they transition from being the leader in their own classroom to becoming a leader among their peers - unsure how to navigate a position that is somewhere between administrator and teacher.

Building strong relationships while learning to manage the tension among listening, facilitating, and directing is key to the success of this position.

Designed for:

- instructional coaches
- content-based coaches
- content area specialists
- curriculum specialists
- teacher leaders
- department heads

A Schedule that works for you

20 total contact hours

8 sessions: 2 in person (10-2) - 6 remote (10-12)

Oct. 14, Nov. 4, Dec. 2, Jan. 6, Feb. 3,
March 3, April 14, May 5

Location: TBD

Fee: $795/participant

REGISTER
NOW!

SCAN ME

<https://forms.gle/5oqCn5XtQMEmyesD9>

Trainers who have been there

Shoshy Starr, former instructional coach in the Boston Public Schools & Wellesley Public Schools

STRENGTHEN YOUR SKILLS

- Define the role of coach; its purpose and its potential for change
- Assess your current role; what's working, areas for growth
- Strengthen your relationships and communication with both teachers and principal
- Learn coaching moves, questions, prompts & protocols that will improve your leadership of PLCs and team meetings
- Improve your 1:1 coaching observations of, meetings with, and feedback for, teachers

IMPACT STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT BY

- Acting as a thought partner for the teachers and leaders in your building.
- Encouraging teachers to articulate their planning and thinking process.
- Using tools for lesson study to help teachers improve instruction.
- Exploring the challenges and opportunities teachers face in their day-to-day work.

Contact us today
for more information or to register

781-516-8511
www.athenak12.com