Katharine Geisert is a classical violinist based in Richmond, VA. Katie received her Bachelors in Music Performance from VCU in 2011. She moved to Westchester, New York and received her Masters in Music Performance from SUNY Purchase in 2013. Katie moved back to Richmond and began working at St. Edward Church in April, 2014 as an Administrative Assistant and Instrumental Director for Liz Goodwin.

Katie married Erik Geisert at St. Edward Church in May, 2020. They are raising their two children in the faith community. Both of their children were baptized at St. Edward and Katie's beloved parents were laid to rest in the columbarium.

Katie is excited to start this new chapter in the music ministry as the Associate Director of Music.
