Hebrews 6:10

For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labor of love, which ye have shewed toward His name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

Hello Providence family! I pray everyone is doing well. Through God's grace, we have made it to June. Our children have just finished another safe and prosperous school year. Congratulations to each of them on their hard work, achievements, and success.

It is now time for us to focus and prepare our hearts for the Providence Annual Session (June 25-28). I hope you have already marked these days on your calendar. As you attend, we are expecting a spirit-filled time in the Lord. We can all expect great fellowship, and Christian renewal as we come together in unity lifting up our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. The Holy Word promises that God will not forget our labor of love as we unite together in His name. Let us commit ourselves to these days that are set aside to uplift Jesus so God receives all of the glory. We will commit ourselves as we come together to encourage and edify one another. I personally invite all of you to attend each day to help in this great celebration. A time to remember where God has brought us from and the future He is leading us into. I'm excited and looking forward to seeing you there.

May God continue to smile upon you!

Your friend and brother in Christ
