Proverbs 17:17

A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for adversity.

A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for adversity.

Hello Providence family! I pray this finds you and your loved ones healthy and blessed. As we take a look at Proverbs 17:17, some very important points should draw our attention. This scripture teaches that we may have many fair-weather friends; when the storms come, they seem to vanish. A true friend will continue to love you irrespective of the circumstances and situations.

I say thank you to our Providence family for your love and support. First Lady, Sis. Brandee and I found ourselves in a difficult situation for several weeks. Many of our churches, pastors and prayer warriors expressed their true friendship. There were many prayers, calls and texts. Thank you for your continued love.

Providence continues to be the greatest association in the world. As we move forward, sharing the Gospel of Jesus Christ, I pray God continues to give us strength. It is only through Him that victory is given.

May God continue to bless and smile upon you.

Your friend and brother in Christ,
Moderator Keith L. Jackson
