Associate Minister of Housing

I would like to thank you ( Deborah Hart) and the Residents' Council for the significant contribution you have made during the review of the Retirement Villages Act 2003 (the Act). Please pass on my gratitude to the Council for their hard work and advocacy over the last several years.

I have appreciated your constructive engagement with the Government and the perspectives you and the Residents' Council brought on behalf of retirement village residents. Your insights and experience have been invaluable in helping progress the review.

I look forward to engaging with the new Chair, Carol Shepherd, and the Residents' Council as the Government progresses the agreed changes to the Act through Parliament later this year.
