Utopia of the Seas Highlights Launched in 2024

This Oasis-class mega-ship by Royal Caribbean International designed specifically for high-energy weekend getaways. At 236,860 gross tons, the massive 18-deck vessel accommodates over 5,600 passengers and specializes in 3- and 4-night Bahamas itineraries departing from Port Canaveral.

The awesome 8 neighborhoods make this floating city highly navigable and is divided into eight distinct, immersive zones:

1. Central Park: A serene, open-air, living garden featuring over 10,000 live plants
2. Royal Promenade: The central multi-deck boulevard loaded with retail shops
3. The Boardwalk: A family-friendly outdoor space featuring a carousel, Johnny Rockets, and the thrilling 10-story dry slide known as the Ultimate Abyss.
4. Pool & Sports Zone: Five pools, eight hot tubs, multi-level water slides, a zipline, FlowRider surfing simulators, and Splashaway Bay for kids.
5. Entertainment Place: The central hub for nightlife, Casino Royale, the theater, comedy club.
6. Vitality Spa & Fitness: A massive spa retreat and state-of-the-art gym.
7. Youth Zone: Dedicated areas for kids and teens.
8. Suite Neighborhood: An exclusive area for high-tier suite guests

Utopia of the Seas also backs up the “World’s Biggest Weekend” claim by offering a wealth of attractions – more than any other cruise ship embarking on short sailings – including five pools, 23 bars and lounges, and more than 20 dining experiences. It’s also home to Royal Caribbean’s longest Ultimate Abyss dry slide. There’s so much to do aboard the ship that a 3/4-day sailing only allows you to enjoy a small fraction of its offerings.
