KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS®

Brother Knights,

Meeting Thursday 2/19/26

WOW!! What a month. Multiple fund raisers, many of them we provided the labor for but the funds went then to the sponsoring organization. I'm truly grateful that so many people volunteered in so many ways. But that's not all, we've also done quite a bit related to Pro-Life and for the first time in recent memory, several members will earn the ACE award for their work in that area. We provided donations to St. Vincent de Paul, the Youth Fair, the Education Foundation, the Senior Citizens, and many more organizations. We also have 11 new members asking to join our council, most of them at the March 1st CUF which will be held at our hall. IF you intend to go to the Corporate Communion or CUF (see below) please wear long pants and a council collared shirt.

This Thursday, we have our regular meeting. Chick-fil-A is providing some sandwiches for us, so even though we don't normally have a meal during Lent, we will likely have some chicken sandwiches available. Please try to arrive early. It will be a relatively short meeting.

One item under new business, a proposal to recognize our late brother Conroy Bezechny for his outstanding service to our council. Please attend to hear about the proposal and discuss next steps.

The BIG FOCUS for this Friday is the fish fries. In order for us to do as much as we do for our community, we need people BEFORE (to help prep), DURING (to help cook and serve), and AFTER (to help clean). PLEASE be there and ask for me if you are new (Jay).

ALSO, remember, lent is about prayer, sacrifice, and almsgiving. Prayerfully consider what you want to take on so that your lent can be fruitful and the glory of easter even better appreciated.
