K. ROCKE DESIGN

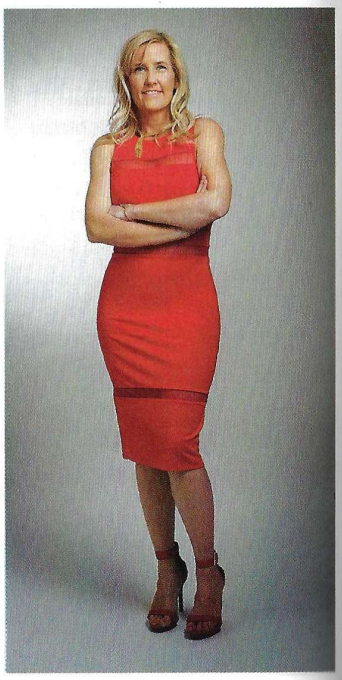

Highly acclaimed designer Kristin Rocke melds her clients' needs and aspirations into spectacular interiors that are as livable as they are uniquely personal. "Each project is tailored with ideas and design origins original to that project—there's no formula," says Rocke, principal and owner of K. Rocke Design. "My clients trust me to help them fully express their unique aesthetic through wholly individualized design."

This Utah-based interior design firm has been widely recognized by the top tastemakers around the globe. The experienced design team is NCIDQ-certified, so it's no surprise that many of its notable, award-winning residential and hospitality projects have been recognized in numerous magazines.

Designing livable, artistic spaces that create a comfortable context for people as their lives evolve is a passion for Rocke. She also owns Glass House, a pulsating design store furnished with unique items that delight shoppers and elevate the style of their homes. Visit social @glasshouseslc and @krockedesign.
