As the main point of contact for players, parents, coaches, and the club committee, the manager is responsible for creating an organised, supportive, and enjoyable environment for everyone involved.

The manager is expected to work closely with coaches and volunteers to ensure the team operates smoothly and efficiently. Where possible, the role of manager can be shared with other coaches or team volunteers, allowing responsibilities to be distributed across one or more people. This collaborative approach helps lighten the load and ensures the team is well-supported throughout the season.

Key Responsibilities

- Communicating clearly with parents, players, coaches, and opposition teams
- Ensuring players are registered and eligible to play

- Supporting the development and wellbeing of all players
- Representing the team at club meetings or league forums as needed

A good manager is approachable, well-organised, and calm under pressure. Most importantly, they help create a positive football experience that players will remember for life.

Player Registration Continued

Training sessions are essential for building skills, teamwork, fitness, and confidence. Managers should work with coaches to ensure that sessions are well-planned, inclusive, and aligned with the club's player development philosophy.

Planning and Structure

- Each session should have a clear objective and be tailored to the age and ability of the group.
- Include warm-ups, skill development, small-sided games, and cool downs.
- More resources can be found here:
<https://learn.EnglandFootball.com/articles-and-resources/coaching/>

Attendance and Communication

- Use 360Player App to track availability and communicate training times and changes.
- Record attendance to help player monitoring and safeguarding.

Equipment and Safety

- Arrive early to set up safely. Check the playing area for hazards.
- Ensure all players wear shin pads and are dressed appropriately for the weather. Players must remove jewellery, such as, ear rings, before taking part in any training session.
- Carry a first aid kit at all sessions
- Cones, bibs, and footballs should be counted in and out of every session.
- Heading is allowed in training for players aged 12 and over.

Player Inclusion and Development

- Involve every player equally, regardless of ability and experience.
- Rotate positions and roles to aid all-round development.
- Make training fun and engaging, with plenty of ball contact and active participation.

Dealing with Absences

- Encourage consistent attendance, but be understanding of other commitments.
- If a player is regularly missing training without notice, follow up with parents in a supportive manner.

Managers Guide

Fixtures and Competitions

Competitive fixtures are an exciting part of grassroots football, providing players with opportunities to learn, grow, and test themselves. As a manager, your role is to ensure that fixtures are organised efficiently, players are prepared, and matchdays run smoothly.

Fixture Management

- Fixtures are scheduled by the league, but managers may need to liaise with opposition teams to confirm kick-off times, venues, and referee arrangements.
- Use FA Full-Time, your league contacts, and the 360Player App to manage and communicate fixture information with players and parents.
- Always double-check pitch availability and weather conditions in advance.
- For home games, contact the opposition manager and the referee by Tuesday or Wednesday in the week before the match.

Match Day Duties

- Arrive early to inspect the pitch and prepare your team
- Ensure players have the correct kit and are wearing shin pads.
- Bring the team kit bag, first aid kit, match balls, and team sheet (if required).
- Greet the opposition and referee with respect and ensure both teams observe the Respect handshake.
- Promote positive behaviour from the touchline and remind parents of their role as supporters, not coaches.
- Ensure the referee is paid the agreed fee promptly, either before or immediately after the match.

Reporting Results

- Submit results, scorers, and any disciplinary notes promptly via your league's reporting system.

On matchday, the FA will send a text message requesting the final score.

- Ensure matchday records are up to date, especially in leagues where appearances are tracked.

Please ensure all matchday statistics are accurately recorded using the Matchday app and Full-Time system for the girls and the Papionne game card for the boys.

Cup Games and Friendlies

- Cup fixtures often have different rules—always check competition guidelines.
- Managers can arrange friendlies during free weekends or off-season
- All friendlies must be sanctioned by both the home and away team.

Managers Guide

End of Season

The end of the season is an important time to reflect, celebrate, and begin preparations for the next campaign. As a manager, your role is to ensure that all administrative, equipment, and player-related matters are finalised in a smooth and organised way.

Presentation and Celebration

- Collaborate with the club and parents to organise a team presentation or celebration event. The club will make a financial contribution per player towards end-of-season costs and will provide funding for up to three awards per team. The exact contribution amount will be confirmed and communicated to managers closer to the time. Any additional awards or rewards will be at the team's own expense.
- Recognise each player's contribution, improvement, or attitude—not just top performers.
- Suggested awards include:
 - Player of the season
 - Most Improved Player
 - Players' Player
 - Manager's Award
- Ensure awards reflect the club's values of inclusion, effort, and development.

Kit and Equipment Return

- Collect all matchday and training kits from players who
 - Leaving the club
 - Moving up to a new age group (if kits will be replaced)
- Check the condition of items and report anything damaged or missing.

Feedback and Player Development

- Provide feedback to players and parents on progress and areas to work on.
- Encourage players to stay active during the off-season.
- Identify players who may benefit from additional support, or changes in playing level.

Transition to New Age Groups

- Work with the club's age group coordinators to manage any transitions:
 - Players moving up to new formats (e.g. 5v5 to 7v7)
 - Changes in pitch size, ball size, or rules
- Ensure all players are prepared for the new challenges and expectations.

Managers Guide

Registration for Next Season

From June 1st, once the season ends, all players are no longer affiliated with the league and may join other teams without a formal transfer request. This section outlines the process for re-registering both the team and its players for the new season. Managers are expected to:

- Support the club's player registration process.
- Confirm which players are continuing.
- Ensure contact and medical details are up to date.
- Handle with new player recruitment if needed.

360 Player

- Register all new players on 360Player as per the instructions in this guide, and notify the club once complete.
- Inform the club if a player moves between the match squad and training-only status so their subscription can be adjusted accordingly.
- Ensure all player photographs are kept up to date and reflect their current appearance.
- If a player leaves, remove them from your team list on 360Player and inform the club.
- Monitor any overdue subscriptions and follow up promptly. Failure to resolve outstanding payments will delay the player's registration process and may result in them not being registered in time for the new season.

The FA Club Portal

- All players must be added or updated on the FA's Club Portal. This process will be managed by the club.
- Players who are new to football must create a FAN number (FA Number) via the FA website before they can be registered.

Pappione

- Once all players are listed on the FA Club Portal and player registration is open, add them to Papionne using the information from the FA Club Portal team list.
- Update each player's profile with their photograph — note that the image must be identical to the one uploaded on the FA Club Portal.
- When all details are complete for a player, send a signature request. This will generate an email to the parent/guardian for their electronic signature.
- Once signed, the information is automatically returned to the FA for verification.

Invoice

- Registering a player incurs a fee. The club covers the initial registration cost, including insurance, and invoices this amount to parents via 360Player. Payment will be requested on either 1st August or 15th August, depending on the bill payer's chosen date.
