Dear _____,

We are in the process of updating the next publication of the _____ Area Regional Telephone Directory, "The Read Book" which will be delivered
_____.

You are currently advertising in this directory, and I have been unable to reach you directly regarding any changes you may have to your information. We understand you are very busy with your business therefore; we have attached a copy of your current representation in the directory for your review.

We will renew your advertising/listings as is, at the noted rate, in the next publication unless you contact us by _____ with any changes you would like us to make.

Thank you for your continued business and we wish you a successful year!

Sincerely,

Sales Representative
