Ride Beyond the Gate

Your Guide to Taking the Bus from NAS Whidbey Island

NAS Whidbey Island is now a fixed route, making it easier and more reliable to get around without a car. Island Transit is fare-free and open to everyone, giving you simple access to shopping, food, parks, and off island connections.

Ride to the NEX, head downtown, explore Whidbey Island's beaches and trails, or connect to routes that take you to the ferry and as far as Seattle. No fare.

Just show up and ride.

How to Take the Bus (Step by Step)

1. Find Your Stop

Look for Island Transit bus stop signs along the route. Arrive a few minutes early.

2. Check the Schedule

Buses run on set times. Schedules are available online and at many stops.

3. Board the Bus

Enter through the front door when the bus arrives. There is no fare to pay.

4. Ask for Help if Needed

If you're unsure where to get off, tell the driver your destination. They're happy to help.

5. Signal Your Stop

Pull the cord or press the stop button when your stop is next.

6. Exit Safely

Exit through the rear door when possible.

Where the Bus Can Take You

• On Base & Nearby

Easy access to the NEX and areas surrounding base

• Downtown Oak Harbor

Restaurants, shopping, waterfront, and local businesses

• Parks & Adventure

Beaches, trails, and iconic island destinations like Deception Pass

• Offisland Connections

Connect at March's Point for service to Mount Vernon and Skagit Valley
