See Whidbey like a European vacation—with public transit.
Historically rich with breathtaking views, Central Whidbey is the site of the island’s first western settlement. These six locations can be easily reached by bus, Monday through Saturday. So, leave parking and driving hassles behind and help reduce carbon. The bus comes about every 30-to-60 minutes, making it easy to visit Central Whidbey with Island Transit.

1 Historic Downtown Coupeville Visit one of Washington’s oldest towns with charming shops, a variety of dining options and marine life exhibits on the historic wharf. Served by Route 6, Mon-Fri, and Route 1, Mon - Sat.

2 Ebey’s Landing National Historical Reserve See farms and fields that have been worked by pioneer families since the first white immigrants settled here in the 1850’s. Visit remnants of the prairie that has thrived here since the last ice age. Served by Route 6, Mon-Fri, and Route 1, Mon - Sat.

3 Historic Fort Casey State Park Explore the bunkers and gun batteries of a Coast Artillery Fort built in the 1890’s. Visit the Admiralty Head Lighthouse, have a picnic or stroll the shoreline. Served by Route 6, Mon-Fri, and Route 1, Mon - Sat.

4 Keystone Spit A two-mile stretch of land separating Admiralty Inlet and Crocket Lake and part of Fort Casey. The Keystone Spit Hiking Trails starts in the parking lot near the Coupeville ferry terminal. After your hike, hop back on the bus to explore another landmark. Served by Route 6, Mon–Fri, and Route 1 on Saturdays.

5 Greenbank Farm Once was the largest loganberry farm in the U.S. Today the farm boasts a solar pea patch, a dog park, art galleries, cheese, wine and pie shops. Check out Master Gardener’s demonstration garden near the pond. Served by Route 1, Mon- Sat.

6 Kettles-Rhododendron Bike Path Take this paved bike path for four miles between Rhododendron Park and Winterhawk Lane between Highway 20 and the farms and forests on the outskirts of Coupeville. Access trail from South Main Street at the Elementary School with a pedestrian overpass for a safe connection to old town Coupeville. Served by Route 6, Mon-Fri, and Route 1, Mon - Sat.