THE PROBLEM

Unpaid invoices aren't a paperwork problem. They're a cashflow problem.

Every week an invoice sits overdue is working capital you can't deploy, and the longer it ages, the harder it is to recover.

WHY CHASING BY HAND BREAKS DOWN

Three problems every finance team knows

Slow

Chasing is hours of manual work that always slips to the bottom of the list.

Inconsistent

Some clients get three reminders, others get none. Nothing follows a clear process.

Awkward

Pushing for payment strains the client relationships you've worked to build.

MEET 6ELΔ

A co-pilot that chases every invoice, so you don't have to.

6ELA syncs with your accounting system and runs a consistent, automated recovery process from first reminder to legal-ready escalation.

WHAT GELA DOES

Three jobs, handled end to end

Automate

A three-step chase runs on its own, AI letters and automated nudges, every time.
