YOUR COST

You will be responsible for your transportation to and from Washington, D.C., your hotel accommodations, and any meals not provided by C.O.P.S. Survivors may be able to find assistance with transportation and hotel costs from their local C.O.P.S. chapter or law enforcement agency. The Candlelight Vigil, National Police Survivors’ Conference, and National Peace Officers’ Memorial Service have no cost for law enforcement survivors.

TRAVEL

Survivors who register through C.O.P.S. and book rooms at an official C.O.P.S. hotel will be escorted by law enforcement on May 11 and May 12 between 9:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m. from Reagan National Airport (DCA) to their C.O.P.S. hotel. Arriving on these days will allow you to take part in the escorted arrival to your hotel, pick up your credentials, check-in to your hotel, and sightsee before the week’s events begin. If you fly into a different airport, there will be no transportation or escorts provided.

All guests will be required to provide a form of payment at check-in. If you cancel your reservation within 72 hours of arrival, you may be charged for the duration of your stay.
Schedule of Events

Wednesday, May 17

Official Departure Day
There is no organized transportation to the area airports. Attendees staying at the DoubleTree should contact the hotel front desk to schedule a shuttle. There will be limited transportation from the Washington Hilton, Generator, and Churchill Hotel. Please consider a ride share company such as Uber for airport transportation on this day.
C.O.P.S. defines survivors as spouses, children, parents, siblings, fiancés, significant others, extended family members, co-workers, and friends. Co-workers are included in the current year survivors, returning survivors and historical survivors definitions.

CURRENT YEAR SURVIVORS: All survivors of the officers being honored during the National Peace Officers’ Memorial Service.

RETURNING SURVIVORS: All survivors of an officer who has been honored in prior years.

HISTORICAL SURVIVORS: All survivors of the officer being honored at the Candlelight Vigil only. Historical officers are not honored at the National Peace Officers’ Memorial Service.

Pertaining to the May 15th National Peace Officers’ Memorial Service Only:

PRIMARY SURVIVOR (definition used for May 15 only): will be (in order of recognition) the spouse, children, parents, and siblings of the fallen officer being honored. If the officer was not married or the spouse is not present, the responsibility of placing the flower into the memorial wreath will pass down to the next in line to serve as the “primary survivor”. If you have questions, please email fopmemorialservice@fop.net.

PARTICIPATING FAMILY MEMBER: will include the “primary survivor” as well as children, parents, siblings and the official escort officer of the family. These family members and escort officers will follow directions provided by the FOP for their involvement as “participating family members” on May 15.

NON-PARTICIPATING FAMILY MEMBER: will include extended family members: aunts, uncles, grandparents, nieces, nephews, cousins, in-laws, friends and co-workers of the fallen officer being honored. On May 15, these people will need to follow directions that will be printed and given to “non-participating family members”.

ESCORT OFFICER: Each police agency, along with the family of the fallen officer, should choose one department officer to represent the family and the officer’s department at the ceremony on May 15. Escort officers participating in the Memorial service, are required to wear “Class A” uniforms with weapon and official law enforcement photo identification on their person. Plainclothes officers are requested to wear business attire. All officers carrying a handgun must have their badge visible at all times and have two forms of identification including the law enforcement photo identification on their person.
Candlelight Vigil -

Each year on May 13, the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund presents its annual Candlelight Vigil - a signature event of National Police Week in Washington, D.C. During the Candlelight Vigil, fallen officers whose names were engraved on the Memorial Wall in 2023 are formally dedicated. The Candlelight Vigil, held on the National Mall, includes the lighting of candles, reading of names, remarks by dignitaries, and musical tributes performed to honor the memory of these fallen officers. Bus transportation to and from this event leaves from C.O.P.S. hotels only.

For information on who will be honored or event information, visit nleomf.org or call (202) 737-3400.

C.O.P.S. National Police Survivors’ Conference -

The National Police Survivors’ Conference provides surviving family members and co-workers the opportunity to find support and understanding from other survivors, hear inspirational speakers, and attend seminar sessions that will help them and their family address their grief. There will also be people available to assist with applying for or inquiring about Public Safety Officers’ Benefits. Conference attendees leave National Police Week with a greater understanding of the grief process and the support available through C.O.P.S. On May 14 and May 16, surviving family members and co-workers will attend sessions at the Washington Hilton. Meals included at the conference are a light-fare breakfast and a buffet lunch. If you are a returning survivor, you will be charged the fee for conference meals.

For additional information regarding the conference, contact C.O.P.S. at (573) 346-4911, cops@nationalcops.org, or visit concernsofpolicesurvivors.org.

National Peace Officers’ Memorial Service -

The National Peace Officers’ Memorial Service, which is sponsored by the Fraternal Order of Police and its Auxiliary, will be held on Monday, May 15, to honor those officers listed on the 2023 Roll Call of Heroes. Bus transportation to and from this event leaves from C.O.P.S. hotels only. All participating family members need to use the FOP busing in order to be lined up properly for the memorial service and the placement of the carnation in the memorial wreath. For information on who will be honored or event information, visit policeweek.org or email fopmemorialservice@fop.net. You can also call the FOP Hotline at (615) 913-3073 for inquiries specific to the May 15th Memorial Service.
C.O.P.S. Kids/Teens Program-

C.O.P.S. Kids/Teens Program is for the fallen officers' children, step-children, and siblings, in kindergarten through 12th grade, who will have the opportunity to attend grief counseling sessions, as well as age-appropriate fun and social activities on May 14 and May 16. The program will take place at local law enforcement facilities.

Additional details for the C.O.P.S. Kids/Teens activities will be sent to the parent/guardian along with a request for additional paperwork on each child. Children must be pre-registered and must attend both days of the C.O.P.S. Kids/Teens Program. Deadline to register is March 24, 2023.

C.O.P.S. Daycare-

C.O.P.S. Daycare provides child care for infants through pre-school (up to age 6) at the Washington Hilton while adults are in conference sessions on May 14 and May 16. This service is provided exclusively to the surviving children, step-children, and siblings, of the fallen officer during Conference hours only. Children at daycare will be fed lunch on both days. After registration information is received at the C.O.P.S. National Office, a request for additional paperwork on the child(ren) will be sent to the parent/guardian. Children must be pre-registered. Deadline to register is March 24, 2023.

For more information regarding the C.O.P.S. Kids/Teens and/or the Daycare Program, contact the C.O.P.S. Services Department at (573) 346-4911, email cops@nationalcops.org, or visit the C.O.P.S. website at concernsofpolicesurvivors.org

Bicycle Rides-

The Law Enforcement United (LEU) “Road to Hope” bicycle ride, comprised of active/retired law enforcement officers and survivors, will complete their 250+ mile bicycle rides from five different locations or the 1,000 mile Long Ride into Washington, D.C., on May 12. They will present a NPW memorial flag to the surviving families of each officer being honored this year during the May 15 Memorial Service. (One flag per family will be presented.)

The Police Unity Tour bicycle ride will also be arriving this day at the National Law Enforcement Officers’ Memorial.

Details on both these honorable bicycle rides will be available in your agenda book that you will receive upon check in.
IMPORTANT “NEED TO KNOWS”

REGISTRATION FEES (Returning Survivors Only)
If you are a returning survivor and plan to attend the National Police Survivors’ Conference breakfast, luncheons, and Picnic on the Patio, a $150/adult and $50/child fee will be charged via your registration. This fee is for five meals during the week. C.O.P.S. has a waiver option available on the registration for financial hardships. Current-year survivors can attend conference meals at no cost.

DEADLINES
The deadline to register through C.O.P.S. for hotel accommodations is March 24, 2023 at 4:30 p.m. (Central time). Following the registration deadline, a registration form for current-year survivor credentials only will be available upon request until April 28, 2023. Deadline to submit travel plans to C.O.P.S. for Reagan National Airport (DCA) pickup on May 11 and 12 is April 28, 2023.

CANCELLATION POLICY
Hotel room cancellations made within 72 hours of the arrival date are subject to charge by the hotel(s).

SPECIAL NEEDS
There is a significant amount of walking and/or standing during National Police Week, and due to the amount of people that attend NPW each year, C.O.P.S. cannot provide medical equipment nor can any of the other organizations involved in NPW. If you or someone in your family has a mobility issue, you should contact Zask International Medical Supply at (703) 354-1266 prior to arriving to arrange rental of medical equipment or you will need to bring all supplies needed with you.

DAILY TRANSPORTATION & EVENT TRANSPORTATION
Transportation to non-scheduled events or locations, such as shopping, restaurants, or sightseeing, will not be provided. If you would like to go to the White House, Capitol, Arlington, Museums, Memorials, etc., please use a taxi, Uber, Metro, or Lyft service. C.O.P.S. provides transportation to and from the Washington Hilton for the LEU arrival ceremony on May 12. C.O.P.S. does not provide transportation to the Police Unity Tour arrival. The NLEOMF coordinates the busing to and from the Candlelight Vigil on May 13. All busing to this event leaves from official C.O.P.S. hotels only. You must have C.O.P.S. credentials to utilize this busing. The FOP coordinates the busing to and from the Memorial Service on May 15. All busing to this event leaves from official C.O.P.S. hotels only. You must have C.O.P.S. credentials to utilize this busing. All participating family members need to use the FOP busing in order to be lined up properly for the memorial service.
ATTIRE FOR EVENTS
Dress is casual for the LEU Arrival Ceremony, Candlelight Vigil, the National Police Survivors’ Conference and the C.O.P.S. Kids/Teens Activities. Business attire is appropriate for the Memorial Service. Events are held rain or shine, bring an umbrella, sunscreen, poncho, and/or jacket.

MEALS
C.O.P.S. provides breakfast and lunch on May 14 and breakfast, lunch, and dinner on May 16 for those who signed up for the National Police Survivors’ Conference and Blue Family BBQ. Children attending the Kids/Teens or Daycare Program will be provided lunch. All other meals are on your own. If you’ve attended NPW through C.O.P.S. before, you will be required to pay a registration fee (see page 8).

CHECK-IN
C.O.P.S. will host NPW Check-In at the Washington Hilton (Columbia Ballroom) on:

- May 11 from 3:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.
- May 12 from 9:00 a.m. - 6:00 p.m.
- May 13 from 8:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.
- May 14 from 8:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Check-In is where you will receive your credentials for events, agenda for the week’s events, Candlelight Vigil information, and Memorial Service information. Please pre-register by visiting www.concernsofpolicesurvivors.org/aboutnpw.

SHUTTLES
C.O.P.S. provides shuttles to/from official C.O.P.S. hotels to the host hotel, Washington Hilton, on May 11, 12, 13, 14, & 16. No shuttles run on May 15 in observance of National Peace Officers’ Memorial Day. The Metrorail is located three blocks from the Host Hotel. The Metrorail Red Line will take you to the Judiciary Square Metro Station, which is located right next to the National Law Enforcement Officers’ Memorial and Museum. There will be no organized transportation to the airport on May 17. Please coordinate your own transportation.

Popular items such as the 2023 Roll Call of Heroes items, NPW coins and lapel pins, and other law enforcement apparel and gifts will be available at the COPS SHOP, located in the International Terrace of the Washington Hilton.

For store hours, please refer to your NPW Agenda Book you will receive when you check in. To order merchandise prior to your travels, please visit www.copsshop.com.
