St. Peter CATHOLIC CHURCH

JUNE 29TH, 2025
SAINTS PETER AND PAUL - THE APOSTLES

Dear St. Peter Family,

This weekend, we celebrate the great Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, two pillars of the Church and heroic witnesses to the Gospel. It is also our feast day. Though very different in background and personality, both were radically transformed by Christ and spent their lives proclaiming Him as Lord—ultimately shedding their blood for the faith. Their feast reminds us that the Church is built not on perfection, but on faith, grace, and the transforming love of Jesus Christ. May we, too, have the courage to live and witness our faith with boldness in our own time.

I also want to offer a heartfelt thank you to everyone who helped make my anniversary celebration so special. Your prayers, kind words, and presence were a beautiful expression of our life together as a parish family. I am deeply grateful for your support and friendship over this first year as your pastor—it's a gift to be your pastor.

Next Friday, July 4, we'll have Mass at 9:00 AM in observance of Independence Day. Since it also falls on First Friday, this will serve as our usual First Friday Mass as well. What a fitting way to begin the day—with gratitude to God and prayers for our country.

Saints Peter and Paul—pray for us!

Prayers, Fr. Ryan Browning

INDEPENDENCE DAY MASS

4TH

Friday is Independence Day! We will have a 9:00am Mass that day. Reminder that this is also First Friday so we will do First Friday prayers after 9:00am Mass.

At first, the Apostles try to dodge the question.

When Jesus confronts them — and make no mistake, it is a confrontation — with the question "Who do you say that I am?" they act like a man whose wife has just asked him if she looks fat in these jeans.

The evasiveness of their answer puts politicians to shame: "Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets."

Some say.

But Jesus doesn't let them off easy. He repeats himself. He wants an answer. "Who do you say that I am?"

They all know the answer. They all believe the answer. And they all know the answer could get them thrown in prison or killed. Only Peter is brave enough to say it: "You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God."

People have a lot of opinions about God. They always have. They have a lot of opinions about Jesus and the Bible, about the Catholic Church and the Pope. Some of these opinions are well-founded, well-researched. Some of them are based in ignorance. Many are born of painful misunderstandings. But they are all just that: opinions.

Some say.

We know who Jesus is. We know who the Eucharist is. We know what the truth is. Amid the chaos and the violence and the excruciating loudness of this fallen world and all the words it shouts into the void about God and Jesus and right and wrong, we know.

But will we answer?

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

Our new Walking with Moms in Need (WWMN) parish ministry, with the help of Father Browning, has reached a decision on our first three goals since we want St. Peter Church to become an island of mercy for those in need—a place parents can receive help and support.

- 1. We will begin by collecting items that families with new babies need such as car seats, diapers, Pack 'n Plays, etc. We will set up an easy way that we can give these to parents in need.
- 2. We will prepare parish volunteers to be mentors to moms and dads in need, walking alongside them as they experience challenges.
- 3. We will work to make sure that the parish and the community know about the ways we will offer our help and can easily see the Resource List that we have been building.

We will work on detailed action plans to achieve these first three goals at our next RLM meeting on July 8, 2025 at 7 pm in the Muldoon Room. There are lots of details and logistics to work on, but now we know how we will begin! If you want to help with one of the three goals above, come to the meeting! Please join us in praying that our united efforts will help ensure pregnant women in need know that they can turn to our parish for support and assistance. Keep in mind that the goal of Walking with Moms in Need is not to become a social service organization. The goal is that when any pregnant woman in need contacts our parish for assistance, we are ready and able to help them find the best resources in our local area and to support them on their choice for life. We invite all parishioners to join us in WWMN. For more information, and to ensure you receive ongoing updates, please contact: walkingwithmoms.stpeterrIm@gmail.com In the meantime, pray!

O Blessed Mother, you received the good news of the incarnation of Christ, your Son, with faith and trust. Grant your protection to all pregnant mothers facing difficulties. Guide us as we strive to make our parish communities places of welcome and assistance for mothers in need. Help us become instruments of God's love and compassion. Mary, Mother of the Church, graciously help us build a culture of life and a civilization of love, together with all people of good will, to the praise and glory of God, the Creator and lover of life. Amen
