

St. Peter

CATHOLIC CHURCH

AUGUST 24TH, 2025

21ST SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

1891 KANEVILLE ROAD, GENEVA, IL

FROM THE PASTOR

Dear St. Peter Family,

This coming week, we are blessed to celebrate the feast days of St. Monica (August 27) and St. Augustine (August 28). These two saints remind us of the power of prayer and the grace of conversion. St. Monica's faithful intercession brought her son, Augustine, from a life of wandering into one of the greatest minds and hearts of the Church. Their example encourages us to persevere in prayer for our loved ones and to remain open to God's transforming love.

Please also note that for Labor Day (Monday, September 1), we will have only one Mass at 9:00 a.m. There will be no other Masses or parish activities that day as we pause to honor the dignity of human work and the gift of rest.

As September begins, we are excited for two opportunities for spiritual growth in our parish:

- That Man Is You (TMIY) – Our men's faith formation program begins again this fall. It provides an opportunity for men to gather, strengthen one another in faith, and grow as disciples of Christ in their families, workplaces, and parish life. (Saturday mornings starting Sept 13th)
- SHE – Our women's ministry is also starting a new session, offering prayer, community, and encouragement for women of all ages who desire to deepen their relationship with the Lord. (Monday nights starting Sept 22nd)

I encourage you to take advantage of these programs. They are excellent opportunities to build community and to grow in holiness together.

May the intercession of St. Monica and St. Augustine inspire us to remain steadfast in prayer and ever seek God's will in our lives.

Prayers,
Fr. Ryan Browning

ICONS

This is the first week in which I will present a piece of artwork that is not mine, in the sense that I did not make it. But it is something that I own, I actually have it in my office. It's an icon depicting Jesus and John at the last supper. Icons are one of the oldest forms of Christian art. Now, I am no expert on Icons, so some of this might not be entirely accurate or apply to all icons universally (due to various and diverse traditions of iconography). But we're gonna do the best we can.

They might seem strange to us but they have a rich history and significance. The first thing to note about them is that they are more than just images. They are meant to be aids in worship. In similar way that the scriptures are translated from their original Hebrew/Greek languages to Latin, English, Spanish etc. Icons are (more or less) considered "translations" of the Word of God into images. For that reason, icon artists do not say they "draw" or "paint" icons. They would say they "write" icons.

From this image below you can probably notice some of the peculiarity's of iconographic style. But these stylistic quirks have deep theological significance. Iconography after all is visual theology. The figures are usually tall with elongated proportions (maybe difficult to tell by the seated position of Jesus and John). This taller stature represents the figures greater proximity to heaven (and also greater stature) and thus holiness. Another peculiarity is that entire face is usually shown. Figures in icons are (almost) never drawn in profile or from behind. They are either, like Jesus in this image, directly facing the viewer or, like John, at a slight three-quarter view. This is because the Word of God is always received face-to-face. Last peculiarity (that at least I will mention because there are tons more) is the lighting. There are no cast shadows in icons. What I mean is that the lighting is what photographers would consider, "flat". The highlights are in the dead centers of the forms. This is not by accident. For iconographers the light of Christ is not something that stays outside but is received into our souls. The divine light is accepted within then radiates outward, and the lighting of icons reflects that. Also, no cast shadows mean no cast light i.e no sun. So, no specific time of day is depicted. Icons are designed to have a timeless eternal quality. They are considered "windows into heaven" for that reason.

Also, final note because I know some will ask. The IC and XC next to Jesus' head are the Greek abbreviations for his name (the lines above signal that abbreviation). The OWN looking characters in his halo roughly translate to : "the One who is", referring to Moses' encounter with God on Sinai and identifying Jesus as the LORD incarnate.

FOX VALLEY CATHOLIC BIBLE STUDY

St. Patrick (Crane Rd.) hosts this year!

Women of all ages are invited to study Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible with the Fox Valley Catholic Bible Study for Women this fall. Many Catholics want to read the Bible because they know it is God's Word, but they give up because it seems so complicated. This study will help you get the "big picture" by showing how fourteen narrative books of the Bible tell the complete story from Adam and Eve to Christ and the Church.

Our Fall 2025 study will be held at St. Patrick Parish (6N491 Crane Road, St Charles, IL) on Thursdays from September 11th to November 13th from 9 AM to 11 AM. A Zoom option is available. The $30 fee includes the study materials. Children 2 and under will stay with their mothers in a special group. Registration forms can be found on our website: <https://fvwbiblestudy.org/> Please register early. If you have questions, please email us at fvwbiblestudy@att.net or call Kathy at 630-370-4629.

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

Rosebud Ministry

Roses are often a symbol of the modern pro-life movement with a red rose symbolizing marriage, motherhood, and childbirth. In February of this year, we launched the Rosebud Prayer Program to identify needs in our parish family and honor life by offering prayerful support. A vase of colorful roses now rests on a table near the baptismal font with each rose color representing an aspect of family life that is being remembered in daily prayers.

Yellow: waiting to conceive/adopt
Pink: currently pregnant

Red: recent birth/adoption
White: loss of a child

Purple: grandparent concerns
Blue: troubling times

CAN WE PRAY FOR YOU? If you have a prayer request, please complete a prayer intention card and place it in the box near the vase of roses OR email your intention to rosebud.stpeterrlm@gmail.com. Feel free to also take a prayer card. Intentions are gathered from the box and shared with a group of prayer warriors each week. We only use first names or initials in these communications unless you specify that you would like us to use a last name. All prayer intentions are welcome whether they are for a parishioner or non-parishioner.

WILL YOU PRAY WITH US? At 6 months, this program is in its infancy with 89 prayer warriors. We want YOU to join us! Our parish family will grow closer to Jesus and each other through daily prayer. If you can commit to private prayer for our Rosebud intentions, please register as a prayer warrior by emailing your name, email address and phone number to rosebud.stpeterrlm@gmail.com. You will then receive weekly prayer intentions via a Monday Flocknote email.

DID YOU KNOW? Pope Francis told us that prayer opens the door to hope. Let's try to pray more during this Jubilee Year of Hope. Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God. Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus. Philippians 4:6-7
