

St. Peter

CATHOLIC CHURCH

AUGUST 31ST, 2025

22ND SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

1891 KANEVILLE ROAD, GENEVA, IL

FROM THE PASTOR

Dear St. Peter Family,

In today's Gospel, Jesus is invited to a meal and uses the opportunity to teach a lesson about humility and generosity. He notices how people choose the places of honor at the table, and He tells a parable: "When you are invited, go and sit in the lowest place... For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

Humility is not about putting ourselves down, but about living in the truth—recognizing that all we are and all we have is a gift from God. The proud heart demands recognition and control, while the humble heart rests in God's love and allows Him to lift us up in His time.

Jesus also challenges us to extend generosity beyond those who can repay us. He says: "When you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you." True Christian charity is not transactional; it mirrors God's own love, which is freely given.

St. Francis of Assisi lived this Gospel in a radical way. Though born into wealth, he stripped himself of every privilege and embraced poverty so he could serve the poor and forgotten. He once said, "Above all the grace and the gifts that Christ gives to his beloved is that of overcoming self." Francis discovered that humility and love for the least in society are the surest paths to the joy of the Kingdom.

This week, may we follow Christ's call to humility, generosity, and selfless charity. Let us give without expecting anything in return and allow God to raise us up in His own way and time.

Prayers,
Fr. Ryan Browning

STAR WARS

Like most children, I grew up watching Star Wars. An important thing to note about Star Wars is that it isn't really science fiction. It plays more like fantasy or a fairy-tale that just happens to take place in space. So, the clash between good and evil in Star Wars is a mythical sprawling epic with larger-than-life characters.

The way in which Star Wars depicts good and evil is a way in which most fantasy or really most of fiction depicts these ideas. Good and evil are seen as two equal yet opposing forces battling for dominance in an almost eternal dance. Seeking to destroy each other but ironically almost needing each other to exist. This understanding characterized by the Chinese yin and yang which comes from daoism. There can be no light without dark and no dark without light. A lot of well meaning Catholics often think of God and the devil in this way. Like two generals trying to move their lines forward in an endless struggle. I believed that this is how good and evil worked for many years. But like a lot of ideas in popular culture, this does not reflect the Catholic understanding of good and evil. Good and evil are not equal and opposing forces.

Well for starters, evil does not exist. Hmmm, maybe that's a confusing way to word it.

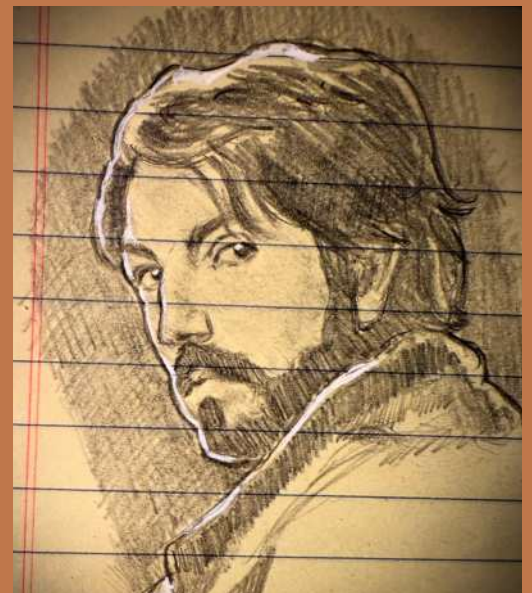

Evil "exists" in the same way a hole "exists". The word "hole" is a word that isn't describing a thing but rather a lack of a thing. In a similar way "evil" isn't describing a thing but the the lack of a thing, that thing being goodness. St. Augustine, whose feast we celebrated this week, defines evil as a privation or lack of the good.

So, did I mention all this just to make use of my philosophy degree? Perchance. But this is important, firstly, to illustrate the fact that God is not in competition with evil. You can't really war with nothingness. So, there is great assurance in the fact that God has total victory over darkness and evil. Thinking of good and evil as equal opposing forces either doesn't give God enough credit or the devil too much. However, the struggle between good and evil feels so tangible and real to us because as fallen creatures we struggle to choose between the two. We struggle to choose between good and evil, or more accurately between good and perceived good. We have been wounded by the fall, but that doesn't mean that the fullness of God's goodness cannot occupy our hearts and remove the empty void of sin.

Not really sure how we got from Star Wars to here, but here's some pictures. They are of Star Wars characters. Enjoy.

LITANY OF HUMILITY

O Jesus, meek and humble of heart,
Hear me.

From the desire of being esteemed,
Deliver me, O Jesus.

From the desire of being loved,
Deliver me, O Jesus.

From the desire of being extolled,
Deliver me, O Jesus.

From the desire of being honored,
Deliver me, O Jesus.

From the desire of being praised,
Deliver me, O Jesus.

From the desire of being preferred to others,
Deliver me, O Jesus.

From the desire of being consulted,
Deliver me, O Jesus.

From the desire of being approved,
Deliver me, O Jesus.

From the fear of being humiliated,
Deliver me, O Jesus.

From the fear of being despised,
Deliver me, O Jesus.

From the fear of suffering rebukes,
Deliver me, O Jesus.

From the fear of being calumniated,
Deliver me, O Jesus.

From the fear of being forgotten,
Deliver me, O Jesus.

From the fear of being ridiculed,
Deliver me, O Jesus.

From the fear of being wronged,
Deliver me, O Jesus.

From the fear of being suspected,
Deliver me, O Jesus.

That others may be loved more than I,
Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.

That others may be esteemed more than I,
Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.

That, in the opinion of the world, others may increase & I may decrease,
Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.

That others may be chosen and I set aside,
Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.

That others may be praised and I go unnoticed,
Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.

That others may be preferred to me in everything,
Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.

That others may become holier than I, provided that I may become as holy as I should,
Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.

Amen

FOX VALLEY CATHOLIC BIBLE STUDY

St. Patrick (Crane Rd.) hosts this year!

Women of all ages are invited to study Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible with the Fox Valley Catholic Bible Study for Women this fall. Many Catholics want to read the Bible because they know it is God's Word, but they give up because it seems so complicated. This study will help you get the "big picture" by showing how fourteen narrative books of the Bible tell the complete story from Adam and Eve to Christ and the Church.

Our Fall 2025 study will be held at St. Patrick Parish (6N491 Crane Road, St Charles, IL) on Thursdays from September 11th to November 13th from 9 AM to 11 AM. A Zoom option is available. The $30 fee includes the study materials. Children 2 and under will stay with their mothers in a special group. Registration forms can be found on our website: <https://fvwbiblestudy.org/> Please register early. If you have questions, please email us at fvwbiblestudy@att.net or call Kathy at 630-370-4629.

Our next date of service is: Wednesday, September 3, 2025. Contact Mary Callahan, (630) 881-6136 or callahmf@yahoo.com with questions!

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

Baby Loss Ministry

The Respect Life Ministry and Mom's Group collaborated to form a new Baby Loss and Miscarriage Ministry. Volunteers are primarily active members of the Mom's Group who themselves have experienced miscarriage, stillbirth, infant death, or other type of baby loss. Sadly, many of our volunteer moms carried their own grief in silence. Whether you lost your baby recently or many years ago, we are here to accompany you along the path of grief toward hope and healing. Our ministry has three goals: to provide practical guidance for moms during and immediately following a loss, to walk alongside grieving moms & families, and to remember and pray for our babies.

There are many facets to our ministry; we'll briefly highlight a few here:

- We are equipped to walk 1:1 with you on your grief journey as we pray for/with you and share resources if/when it is helpful. We are not therapists, spiritual advisors, or medical professionals, but we have walked in your shoes and intimately understand your pain and heartache. We would be honored to speak with you.
- We have assembled a thoughtful 'Hope & Healing Box' we would like to share with families who experience a loss. The box contains resources to help you pray, grieve, and remember your baby.
- We can connect families with other resources in our parish & wider community. For example, we can work with the Mom's Group to provide meals for your family in times of need.
- We will hold a special Remembrance Mass for families that have lost a child. The Mass will be held at St. Peter on Saturday, October 11th at 10:30 AM. This Mass offers a special opportunity for grieving families to remember their baby and pray for hope and healing. Everyone is welcome and encouraged to attend.
- To learn more about this ministry or request their support, please visit <https://www.stpeterchurch.com/baby-loss---misc>

DID YOU KNOW? Kristen Rickards, a Christian singer/songwriter from New Jersey, recently reached out to us sharing a beautiful and powerful song she wrote to her babies after suffering two miscarriages. She has given us permission to share her song hoping it will be a source of hope and healing to other moms who have lost of a baby. Take a listen here <https://kristenrickards.hearnow.com/to-my-unborn-baby-ill-never-forget-you>

The Lord is close to the brokenhearted, saves those whose spirit is crushed. Psalm 34:19

SEASON THREE LOVE UNVEILED

In this season, we will explore what it means for us, as women, to represent the identity of Christ's bride to the world. This relationship is marked by joy and intimacy, but also, like any relationship, it includes moments of failure, heartbreak, and the need for restoration. As we journey together, we will delve into the depths of Christ's love for His Bride, discovering the beauty of reconciliation and the grace that heals and strengthens us. Prepare your heart to be pursued by the Lord in a way that deepens your love for Him, invites your soul to heal, and fortifies your relationship with Christ.

It paints the picture of our salvation history and God's continuous love for us, linking the Old and New Testaments. This study will help you grow in your understanding of our God, the sacraments and the biblical roots of the Catholic church.

Mass and the Mass reading will be more meaningful!!

This study is 26 weeks, presented by Ascension, with Jeff Cavins as the speaker. We will read the bible, answer questions and watch a video. The study starts Wednesday, September 3rd. We meet Wednesday mornings at 10am to Noon in the Muldoon Room. For more information, to sign up & to order materials please contact Kathy Beckmen at 630-661-1061 or at kgbeckmen3@gmail.com.

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

Wednesday, September 10th - 10:15am

The next meeting of The Prayer Shawl Group will be on Wednesday, Sept 10th at 10:15 AM in the Tekakwitha Room. Drop in to see what the Prayer Shawl Group is all about. Whether you knit or crochet, beginner or experienced, all are welcome. We meet once a month for one hour. You complete your yarn project at home on your own timetable. The prayer shawl group provides you with patterns, yarn, and support. Please come join us. The shawls, prayer blankets and baby blankets are blessed and made available for parishioners, their families and friends. If you know of someone who could use the comfort of one of these hand crafted items, please contact Debby Bulak at 630-631-9515.
