CATHOLIC CHURCH

DECEMBER 21ST, 2025
FOURTH WEEK IN ADVENT

1891 KANEVILLE ROAD, GENEVA, IL

FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parish Family,

A blessed and joyful Christmas to you and your families!

As we celebrate the birth of Jesus, we are reminded that Christmas is above all the celebration of a Gift—God's own Son given to us out of perfect love. In the Child lying in the manger, God draws near to us, offering peace, mercy, and the hope that only He can give. Everything we are and everything we long for finds its meaning in Him. This holy season also invites us to recognize the many gifts God continues to place in our lives. One of the greatest is our parish family of St. Peter. God has blessed us with a vibrant, faith-filled community where we can encounter Him, learn to follow Him more closely, and support one another along the journey.

Here at St. Peter, we are surrounded by signs of His grace:

- the beauty of the liturgy where Christ meets us in Word and Sacrament
- a school and religious education program forming our children in the faith
- opportunities for prayer, outreach, and discipleship that help us grow as intentional followers of Jesus
- friendships and fellowship that strengthen our unity as the Body of Christ
- the generosity of so many who give their time, talent, and treasure to make our parish a spiritual home for all.

In a world often marked by darkness and division, our parish is a place where the light of Christ truly shines—a place where the gift of God's love is experienced and shared. Thank you for the countless ways you contribute to this mission. Your presence, your prayers, your sacrifices, and your love for this parish are themselves gifts that God uses to build up His Church.

As we gaze upon the manger this Christmas, may our hearts be renewed in gratitude. May we welcome Christ more deeply into our lives and allow His love to flow through us—so that St. Peter Parish may continue to be a place where all can encounter Him. Be assured of my prayers for you during this beautiful season. May the Newborn King fill your hearts and homes with peace, joy, and abundant grace. Merry Christmas, and may God bless you!

In Christ,
Fr. Ryan Browning
Your grateful Pastor!

THE ARRIVAL OF CHRIST

We approach the day that this entire Advent season has been leading to. Christmas day will arrive. But much like the arrival of the infant Jesus, there will not be a triumphant boom or dazzling lights announcing its arrival. Both the arrival of the infant Jesus and the arrival of Christmas day will be meek, quiet events. The sun will rise on Christmas day the same as it does everyday. It will crest in the sky until it finally sets in the evening as it always has. If we're not careful, this glorious celebration can easily pass us by. Don't let it! This day is history's turning point. When it becomes clear that things will not progress as they always have, that something is about to change. So let us not let it pass us by. Let us allow Christ to enter our hearts so that we may experience that same turning point in our lives.

This final Advent image is something I did for the Diocesan newspaper but I think it also apt to share it here. An image of the Blessed Mother holding the child Jesus, which was done with markers on paper then digitally enhanced.

CHILDREN'S CHOIR 4:00PM CHRISTMAS EVE MASS

Grades 4th-8th are welcome to participate

We are excited to have our annual Christmas Eve Children's choir! All children in 4th - 8th grade are welcome to participate! We ask that those who would like to sing at mass attend out rehearsal earlier that week.

Rehearsal: Monday 22nd: 3:30pm

Please contact Daniel with any questions or concerns: sacredmusic@stpetergeneva.org

I don't have anything left to give. You can't pour from an empty cup. All I do is give. Who is giving to me?
Raise your hand if these thoughts have ever run through your head. I'm sure they occur to all of us from time to time. We can become so easily depleted by the fast pace of life and whatever vocation God has called us to, whether that's parenthood, a demanding professional career or the caretaking of friends and family (or as so often happens, a hybrid of all three). Many of us also undergo certain seasons — seasons of the year, but also seasons of life — that seem to sap us of energy and leave us totally empty.

In these times, it seems impossible to continue in the spirituality of Everyday Stewardship. Graciousness, mindfulness, prayerfulness, gratitude, accountability — maintaining some semblance of these characteristics in our daily life feels not only overly optimistic, but totally impossible.

The Church gives us certain liturgical seasons that are meant to fill us up, almost like spiritual pit stops. Advent is one such season, and the Scriptural passages we reflect on at Mass during these four weeks are filled with images of nature defied. We see the dry steppe blooming. We see the weak made firm. We see the frightened made strong. We see the lame walk. We see the Virgin give birth.

If you think you don't have anything left to give this Advent, think again. This is the season of miracles when what we thought was depleted brings new life.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

ST PETER CHURCH LIBRARY

When you come to Mass next week, take a minute to peruse the selection of pro-life materials that you can sign-out for use at home. The library is open on Sundays and is located in the Narthex Hallway across from the washrooms. Our newest book offering: "Abortion Pill Reversal: A Second Chance at Choice" by George Delgado, M.D. just hit our shelves this month. In addition to printed materials, you can also find a tower of DVD options like Unplanned – the story of former Planned Parenthood clinic director, Abby Johnson, and The Dropbox - a documentary of South Korean pastor Lee Jong-rak's heroic efforts to embrace and protect abandoned children. Please complete a library sign out card whenever you take something home with you and be sure to return everything when you are done so everyone gets a turn.

LEGISLATIVE ISSUES – TAKE ACTION NOW

Please contact Governor Pritzker asking him to VETO HB 1950 - an assisted suicide bill. Visit this link <https://www.votervoice.net/mobile/ILCATHOLIC/Campaigns/131327/Respond> for more information and an online contact form. Respectfully ask him to consider that 1) people with disabilities, the poor, and marginalized fear coercion and abuse under assisted suicide laws, 2) suicide rates increase in states where assisted suicide is legal – especially among veterans, and 3) insurance companies may promote using lethal injection because it is cheaper than lifesaving treatments.
