

St. Peter CATHOLIC CHURCH

APRIL 5TH 2026
EASTER SUNDAY

1891 KANEVILLE ROAD, GENEVA, IL

FROM THE PASTOR

Dear St. Peter Family,

Christ is risen! He is truly risen! Today we celebrate the greatest truth of our faith: that Jesus Christ has conquered sin and death, and that His victory is not just His—it is meant for you. Easter is not simply a remembrance of something that happened long ago. It is an invitation. An invitation to new life. An invitation to hope. An invitation to begin again. And so today, I want to speak in a particular way to those who may feel distant from the Church, from the sacraments, or even from God Himself. Perhaps it has been years since you last came to Mass. Perhaps life became busy, complicated, or painful. Perhaps you felt hurt, forgotten, or simply drifted away. Wherever you are, whatever your story—hear this clearly: You are missed. You are loved. And you are always welcome home.

The Resurrection of Jesus tells us that no darkness is final. No sin is too great. No distance is too far. The stone has been rolled away—and not just from the tomb, but from whatever may be weighing on your heart. The Church is not a place for the perfect. It is a home for those seeking mercy, healing, and a new beginning.

This Easter, do not be afraid to take a step:

- Come back to Mass
- Return to Confession
- Begin again in prayer

You do not need to have everything figured out. You simply need to come. Christ is alive—and He is waiting for you. May this Easter be the moment when hope rises again in your heart, when faith is rekindled, and when you rediscover the joy of walking with the Lord.

With my prayers for you and your family,
Father Browning

You Will Be My Witnesses

Capital Campaign for the Diocese of Rockford

Dear Parishioners of St. Peter,

Your Support, Your Decision. Soon, Bishop Malloy will invite each of us to take part in the historic You Will Be My Witnesses Campaign. This effort is a meaningful opportunity to strengthen our parish while also supporting important initiatives across our diocesan family.

In the coming weeks, every household will be invited to consider a gift, typically offered as a pledge over a three-year period. It is important to remember that these suggested amounts are simply that—an invitation, never an expectation. We recognize that every family's financial situation is different. What matters most is that each of us takes time to pray and discern how God may be calling us to respond.

There are many flexible ways to give, allowing you to make a gift in a way that fits your circumstances. Whether given monthly, annually, or as you are able, your generosity—whatever the amount—will make a real difference.

I encourage you to prayerfully consider what might be a meaningful and even sacrificial gift for you and your family. Together, as one parish family, we can accomplish something truly significant for the future of our Church.

In the weeks ahead, members of our parish campaign team will be available to answer questions, provide additional information, and assist you in completing your pledge.

Thank you for your prayerful consideration and for your continued generosity.

Through the “You Will Be My Witnesses” Capital Campaign, funds will support:

Parish renewal and local parish projects
Evangelization and ministry throughout the diocese
Support for parishes in need
Important diocesan ministries and facilities

Forty percent of the funds raised will remain here at St. Peter Parish to support our own parish priorities and strengthen our mission for years to come. I invite you to learn more about the vision and goals of this campaign by watching the campaign video and visiting the website below.

Watch the Campaign Video:

Learn More About the Campaign:

<https://youwillbemywitnesses.org/>

In the coming weeks, we will share more information about how this campaign will benefit St. Peter Parish and how you can prayerfully participate. Thank you for your continued generosity and for the many ways you help make St. Peter such a vibrant parish community.

In Christ,
Fr. Browning

DIARY OF A COUNTRY PRIEST: is considered a classic in literature and was adapted into a film. It was previously reviewed and recommended in THE NATIONAL CATHOLIC REGISTER.

SONG OF THE LAMB: is a groundbreaking book that dives into the spiritually rich tradition of Catholic sacred music, from the Church's earliest days through the Second Vatican Council and beyond. Cardinal Sarah includes his meditations on the Mass and the liturgy.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

You may not know this, but I am deeply devoted to the mercy of God—because I have experienced it so personally in my own life. And I want every one of you to experience it too. That is why I encourage you to prepare your heart for one of the most extraordinary days in the Church's year: Divine Mercy Sunday.

No matter where you are in your faith—strong, struggling, or even distant—this Sunday is for you. The Easter season is a privileged time to return to the Lord, to reconnect with His Church, and to open your heart to His merciful love. Jesus alone answers the deepest longings and restlessness of our hearts.

Jesus said to St. Faustina (Diary, 699):

"I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners... On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open... Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet."

What Jesus promises on this day is truly astonishing. He offers complete forgiveness of sins and all punishment—a grace so profound it has often been compared to a second baptism, a completely new beginning with nothing held back. This grace is offered personally to each soul who turns to Him with trust.

How to Prepare

1. Make a sincere examination of conscience, go to confession (up to 20 days before Divine Mercy Sunday), and remain in a state of grace (no mortal sins).
2. Receive Holy Communion.
3. Trust in Jesus' mercy, repeating often: "Jesus, I trust in You."

Plenary Indulgence

On Divine Mercy Sunday, the Church also offers a plenary indulgence (for yourself or a deceased loved one), under the usual conditions:

- Sacramental Confession (as above)
- Holy Communion (in the state of grace)
- Prayer for the Holy Father (Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory Be)
- Detachment from all sin, even venial
- Participation in Divine Mercy devotions, or prayer before the Blessed Sacrament, including the Our Father, the Creed, and "Merciful Jesus, I trust in You."

On Divine Mercy Sunday, April 12, we will have confessions at 2:00 pm and a 3:00 pm prayer service. Join us if you can. This Divine Mercy Sunday, do not stay away.

Do not be afraid. Do not think it is too late. Run to Him.

His mercy is greater than your sin.

In His Mercy,
Fr. Browning
