

St. Peter

CATHOLIC CHURCH

JUNE 28TH 2026

13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

1891 KANEVILLE ROAD, GENEVA, IL

FROM THE PASTOR

Dear St. Peter Family,

The Second Vatican Council often called for the faithful to take part in the liturgy “fully, consciously, and actively.” Yet, this phrase is often misunderstood.

When people hear “active participation,” they often think it means doing something like reading, singing, serving, bringing up the gifts, or helping with a ministry. These are ways to participate, but the Council meant something deeper.

To see what the Council meant, we should first remember why we come to Mass. We do not come to Mass just to do a job. We come to worship God and join ourselves to the saving sacrifice of Jesus Christ. That is why real participation starts in our hearts, not just with our hands or voices. The Council said we should not be at Mass “as strangers or silent spectators.” Instead, we are called to enter into the sacred mysteries with understanding, devotion, and interior participation.

This includes praying the prayers, listening closely to God’s Word, joining in the responses, singing when appropriate, and, most of all, uniting our lives to Christ’s offering to the Father. Think of the Blessed Virgin Mary at the foot of the Cross. She said very little, but no one took part in Christ’s sacrifice more deeply than she did. Her participation was not about doing things, but about being united with Jesus. She offered herself with her Son to the Father for our salvation.

The same is true for us when we are at Mass.

When we bring our joys, sorrows, hopes, struggles, work, family life, and prayers to the altar and join them to Christ’s sacrifice, we are truly participating. By doing this, we let His offering become our own and place our lives in His hands.

Knowing this helps us see why silence is important in the liturgy. Silence can feel strange in our busy, noisy lives, but Sacrosanctum Concilium asks for sacred silence during Mass. Silence is not just empty time. It gives us a chance to listen, reflect, and let God’s grace work in us. Try to notice and rest in these moments.

This is also true for the different postures we use at Mass. Standing, sitting, kneeling, singing, responding, and listening are not just actions. They show what is in our hearts and help bring our body and soul together in worship. When we see active participation like this, the Mass is much more than a set of rituals. It becomes a living meeting with Christ, where we are drawn into His perfect worship of the Father.

The goal of the liturgy is not just for everyone to have a job. The real goal is for everyone to become more closely united to Jesus Christ. As we keep learning about the Mass, let’s ask the Lord to help us take part more fully, not just by what we do, but by offering our hearts more deeply.

The most active person at Mass is not always the one who speaks the most or has the most visible role. The most active participant is the one who unites themselves most closely to Christ’s sacrifice.

This is the kind of participation the Council asks of every Catholic.

Prayer:

Jesus, help me to unite my heart, mind, and soul to you in this Holy Mass. Help me to bring the joys, graces, sufferings, and failures to you in this Mass and lay them upon the altar to be transformed. Help me to be more closely united to you at each Mass.

Prayers,
Fr. Browning

Celebrating New Priests

This week I am sharing the completed "set" if you will of the Sacred and Immaculate Heart images. This was a unique challenge because I drew the Sacred Heart image a while ago so I had to be extra careful to match what I had done there for the Immaculate Heart image, especially in regard to style, composition and lighting. I'm not the most consistent artist so trying to make two images drawn months apart look like they belong together was an unexpected challenge.

Serving Holy Communion at Arden Courts since 2009 has been a profound blessing and an important part of my faith journey. Bringing the Eucharist to those who are unable to attend Mass allows me to share Christ's presence and the comfort of His love. Each visit is a reminder that we are all members of one Body in Christ, united through prayer and the sacrament of Holy Communion. When I serve, I am continually inspired by the gratitude, faith, and devotion of the residents, whose witness strengthens my own relationship with God.

To learn more about helping with this beautiful ministry, please email Michelle Tack at evangelization@stpetergeneva.org or call the parish office!
