FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

God Speaks to His People

Over the past several weeks, we have been rediscovering the beauty of the Mass through the teachings of the Second Vatican Council. We have reflected on why the Mass is the source and summit of the Christian life, what the Church means by active participation, the many ways Christ is truly present in the liturgy, and how the Introductory Rites prepare our hearts to worship God.

Today we arrive at the Liturgy of the Word, where the Lord Himself speaks to His people. If someone you deeply loved called you on the telephone, you would probably stop what you were doing and give that person your full attention. If Jesus Himself walked into your home and began to speak, I doubt any of us would be distracted by our phones or by what we were doing later that afternoon. We would listen carefully because we know that His words are words of eternal life.

Yet every Sunday at Mass, something just as extraordinary happens.

The Second Vatican Council reminds us that Christ is present in His Word, "since it is He Himself who speaks when the holy Scriptures are read in the Church." Think about that for a moment. When the readings are proclaimed, we are not simply hearing ancient religious writings or recalling events from long ago. Through the inspired Scriptures, the risen Christ speaks to His Church here and now.

This is why we conclude the readings by saying, "The Word of the Lord." We do not say, "That was an interesting story," or "Those were wise teachings." We proclaim that these are the living words of God, words that continue to shape, challenge, comfort, and transform His people. For this reason, the Church gives great dignity to the proclamation of Scripture. We stand for the Gospel because Christ Himself is about to speak to us. Candles and incense can accompany the Gospel, signs of honor and reverence. Before it is proclaimed, we trace small crosses on our forehead, lips, and heart, praying silently that God's Word may be in our minds, on our lips, and in our hearts.

But hearing the Word is only the beginning. The Scriptures are not meant to inform us; they are meant to transform us.

The Letter to the Hebrews tells us that the Word of God is "living and effective, sharper than any two-edged sword." God's Word has the power to strengthen the weary, encourage the discouraged, convict the sinner, comfort the grieving, and call each of us to greater holiness. Every time the Scriptures are proclaimed, the Holy Spirit is at work, inviting us to deeper conversion.

This is also why the homily is such an important part of the Mass. The priest or deacon is not merely giving a religious lecture or offering personal opinions. His task is to open the Scriptures, helping the faithful see how God's Word speaks to our lives today. A good homily bridges the distance between the biblical world and our own, allowing us to recognize that the same God who spoke to Abraham, Moses, Peter, and Mary is still speaking to us.

One of the simplest ways to grow spiritually is to prepare for Sunday's readings before arriving at Mass. Spend just a few minutes reading the Gospel during the week. Ask the Holy Spirit to help you understand it. You might also reflect on the readings with your family, discuss what stands out, or write your thoughts in a journal. These practices help God's Word take root in your daily life and open your heart more fully at Mass. Then listen carefully at Mass to see what word or phrase captures your attention. Very often, the Lord speaks through a single sentence that stays with us throughout the week.

The saints loved Sacred Scripture because they recognized it as the voice of their Shepherd. Jesus Himself said, "My sheep hear my voice." Every Mass allows us to hear that voice once again.

As Catholics, we rightly treasure the Eucharist as the Real Presence of Christ. But we should never overlook another great gift God gives us at every Mass: the gift of His living Word. Before He feeds us with His Body and Blood, He nourishes our minds and hearts with the truth that leads to eternal life.

May we never allow familiarity to dull our ears. Instead, let us come to Mass each Sunday with the prayer of the young Samuel in our hearts: "Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening."

Reflection Question:

When the Scriptures are proclaimed at Mass, do I listen with the expectation that Christ Himself is speaking personally to me? What might He be asking of me today?

For example, you might hear the words, 'Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened,' and realize that Jesus is inviting you to bring your worries and burdens to Him. Or perhaps a reading about forgiveness prompts you to talk to Jesus about a person you have struggled to forgive. Taking a moment to reflect on what stands out can help you recognize how God is speaking to your heart in this moment.

In His Word,
Fr. Browning

BEAUTY'S ARROW - Pulchritudo vulnera

This next drawing is of St. Theresa of Calcutta. I have always been moved by her story and compassion for the poor even in the most difficult spiritual times of her life. This drawing was more of a challenge than Pope Benedict because with him I found a reference with dramatic lighting and strong shadows so I could get away with drawing less. Not so with Mother Theresa, especially since there is a lot of detail in her face and it can be easy to get carried away with those details.

WHY GIVING IS IMPORTANT

A Stewardship Reflection

When the sump pump for the Parish Center elevator failed recently, it needed urgent replacement to continue operating safely. The elevator is essential for the St. Peter Community Food Pantry, which relies on it to move food from basement storage to pantry shelves. Because of your weekly gifts through Sunday envelopes and online giving, the pump was replaced right away. The elevator kept running, and the Food Pantry continued serving families without interruption.

This is why giving matters. Your generosity lets us handle campus repairs quickly, so that equipment breakdowns never affect the work our ministries do for the community. Thank you for donations which support the shared mission Christ entrusted to us: to care for one another, especially those most in need.

AUGUST: MONTH OF OUR LADY OF SORROWS

One of the many titles the Virgin Mary holds is Our Lady of Sorrows. Mary knows what it is like to experience deep emotional pain. From the Prophecy of Simeon to the burial of her son, Mary has experienced the deepest of sorrows. Let us turn to our Mother in prayer when we experience feelings of sadness, grief, or despair. FROM THE DESK OF...

Donna with the Holy Spirit Baptism Ministry

I have been involved with the Baptism Ministry for many years. It is a blessing to have a small part in this beautiful and joy-filled sacrament! Working with priests and deacons is an added benefit! Our role includes setting up the baptismal candles, oils, etc, welcoming families and taking a picture of the newly baptized and their families. The time commitment is only 1-2 hours after the 11:00 am Mass every 4-5 weeks. Our ministry members are always very flexible and we can easily accommodate busy schedules! Summer already overloaded? We'd be happy to have volunteers start in September! Reach out to evangelization@stpetergeneva.org for more information!

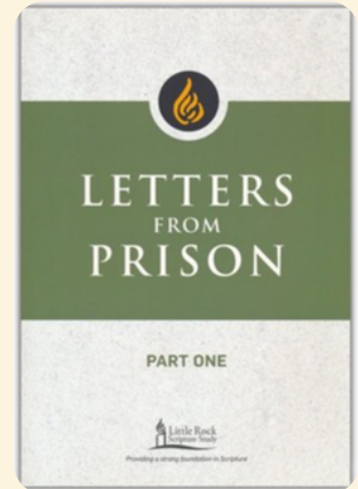

FOX VALLEY CATHOLIC BIBLE STUDY FOR WOMEN

Paul's Letters from Prison

The Fox Valley Catholic Bible Study for Women will be studying Paul's Letters from Prison this fall. While imprisoned several times in defense of the gospel, Paul wrote letters to several Christian communities encouraging and guiding them. These letters (Philippians, Philemon, Colossians and Ephesians) cover topics such as joy, unity of the church, reconciliation, and God's eternal plan. Although written over 2000 years ago, these letters still offer guidance as to how to live a faithful Christian life.

We will be meeting on Thursday mornings from 9-11 AM at St. John Neumann Parish (2900 E. Main St, St. Charles) from September 17th to November 19th. A Zoom option is available. The $30 fee includes the study materials. Scholarships are available. Children ages 2 and under will stay with their mothers in a special small group.

Registration is on our website fwvbiblestudy.org. Registration forms can also be obtained by emailing us at fwvbiblestudy@att.net or by calling Kathy at 630-370-4629. Please register early. We hope you will be joining us for this interesting study!

HOLY HOUR, EXPLAINED!

A holy hour is the practice of spending one hour's time in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament, praying and meditating on the agony of Jesus Christ. More broadly, a holy hour can also refer to any 60 minutes set aside in prayer and reflection, whether in church or elsewhere.

The holy hour devotion dates to the late 17th century, when St. Margaret Mary Alacoque received visions of Jesus Christ. In these visions, the Lord requested that St. Margaret Mary spend one hour every Thursday evening lying prostrate and meditating upon his agony in the Garden of Gethsemane. This practice calls back to the Gospel of Matthew, which tells of Jesus' desire for the disciples to "remain here and keep watch with me" (Matthew 26:38) as he awaited his passion.

Holy hours can be made privately or in community, and the USCCB has created a variety of different holy hour formats that can be found at usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/prayers-and-devotions/eucharistic-devotion.

SACRED HEART OF JESUS STATUE

In memory of the late Fr. Jonathan Bakkelund, this new Sacred Heart of Jesus statue stands near the reliquary as a visible sign of the Church's love and devotion to the Heart of our Redeemer. As people pass by it in prayer, may they give glory, honor, and reparation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, asking Him to draw hearts closer to Him. May this monument also remind us to trust in His Sacred Heart's protection and loving patronage for our parish.

SEASON FIVE LIFT UP YOUR HEARTS

Worship is one of the most fundamental aspects of what it means to be Christian. All of creation was made to worship, and we, as humans, have an intimate connection to the call to praise, revere, and venerate. It is what we were made for. This season, dive deep into not only the practical aspects of worship, but more importantly, recenter your deep longing to pour out your heart fully to the Lord. Make no mistake: authentic worship is not always easy. However, the fruit it bears is unlike anything we can experience in this world.

SCHOOL MUSICAL Into the Woods

My name is Casey DePaepe, and I am excited to share that I will be directing next year's school musical, Into the Woods Jr.

I am currently a fifth grade teacher with 26 years of teaching experience. In addition to teaching, I am a professional actress and singer and a member of both the Screen Actors Guild (SAG) and the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists (AFTRA). Over the years, I have directed three productions, choreographed many others, and performed in numerous shows. I am thrilled to bring this experience to our school production.

Auditions for Into the Woods Jr. will take place in late September, and audition songs will be distributed to students before summer break.

This production features many speaking roles, providing opportunities for a wide variety of students to participate and shine.

If you are interested in helping in any capacity, please contact me at cdepaepe@stpeterrockets.org.

BACK-TO-SCHOOL SHOPPING?

Ready to tackle that back-to-school shopping? Your to-do list might feel endless, but earning money to decrease your tuition bill can be easy! Bonus Bucks is a St. Peter Ministry that uses the national provider, RaiseRight, to purchase gift cards that give back! With each purchase, the retailer provides a percentage back to you in a rebate that accumulates and gets applied to your tuition bill two times per year. Without spending any more than you normally would, your family has the ability to decrease your tuition total. Get inspired with the 2026 Back to School Shopping Guide! Reference the flyer to get started with a RaiseRight account linked to our St. Peter Bonus Bucks Program using the enrollment code: CB5745E33332. Questions?
