"When the disciples saw him walking on the sea they were terrified. 'It is a ghost,' they said, and they cried out in fear. At once Jesus spoke to them, 'Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid.'"
Matthew 14:26-27

OUR RESPONSE TO GOD'S WORD

In recent weeks, we have been gradually exploring the Mass in the manner encouraged by the Second Vatican Council. We have recognized that the Mass serves as the source and summit of Christian life, that authentic participation originates in the heart, that Christ is truly present throughout the liturgy, and that, in the Liturgy of the Word, the Lord Himself addresses His people.

But every conversation requires two voices. God speaks. His people respond.

The Liturgy of the Word does not end with the final reading. Rather, the Church invites us to receive God's Word, allow it to take root in our hearts, and respond with faith.

The first response is the homily.

The homily is more than a speech or religious lesson; it constitutes an integral part of the liturgy. Through the ministry of the ordained priest or deacon, the Church opens the Scriptures and helps us understand how God's eternal Word addresses the concrete realities of our lives today.

An effective homily does more than explain the readings, tell jokes, or tell stories. The homily may include those, but its purpose is to facilitate an encounter with Jesus Christ. It confronts us where conversion is necessary, encourages us in times of discouragement, comforts us in suffering, and inspires us to live the Gospel with greater fidelity. Ultimately, the homily aims to deepen our relationship with Jesus Christ.

To benefit fully from the homily, ask Jesus to give you a word, phrase, or practice to pray with throughout the week. You could also discuss the homily with your family or friends. In this way, the homily becomes a living seed that bears fruit in our lives during the week.

After listening to God's Word and reflecting upon it, the entire congregation rises to profess the Creed.

This is more than reciting familiar words.

When we say, "I believe," we are personally renewing the faith first given to us at Baptism. We are joining our voices to Christians across the world and throughout history, professing the same faith handed down by the Apostles.

The Church has carefully preserved each phrase of the Creed, as every phrase protects the truth about Jesus Christ. The wording of the Creed has remained unchanged for centuries, expressing the core beliefs handed on from the earliest days of the Church. Its exact wording serves as a contact for our faith, joining us with generations of Christians who have professed these same truths across time and place.

The Creed reminds us that the Mass is not simply a personal prayer experience. We worship as members of the one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. Each generation receives the faith as a precious gift and faithfully transmits it, rather than inventing it anew.

Having professed our faith, we then offer the Universal Prayer, sometimes called the Prayer of the Faithful.

We pray for the Church, for civil authorities, for those who suffer, for our local community, and for the needs of the world. During the Universal Prayer, each person is also invited to silently present to God the intentions most dear to their hearts. In this way, our prayer becomes both personal and communal, expanding beyond ourselves as the Eucharist enlarges the heart. Standing before God, we learn to carry not only our own burdens but also those of others.

In many ways, this concludes the first great movement of the Mass.

God has gathered His people.

He has spoken through the Scriptures.

We have listened.

We have professed our faith.

We have prayed for the needs of the world.

Now we are ready to approach the altar.

Everything has been preparing us for the sacrifice that is about to unfold.

INTENTIONS & MEMORIALS • 03

As we continue our progress through the Mass, let us remember that every response we make, whether it is the "Amen," the Creed, the prayer of the faithful, or each sung response, is more than a ritual. These responses represent the Church's voice, expressing faith to the God who has first spoken to us. To prevent our responses from becoming routine, consider focusing on the meaning of a single word or phrase each week, or pause briefly in silence before speaking to recall that you are addressing the living God. Even quietly praying, "Lord, help me mean these words" before a familiar prayer can renew your attention and make your response more sincere.

May our response never become routine but always be the sincere offering of hearts that have heard the voice of the Good Shepherd.

Prayer:

Jesus, help me to speak the words with faith when I recite the Creed, and when I respond "Amen." Help me to consciously renew my faith in You to recognize the profound truths they proclaim. Amen.

In His Word,
Fr. Browning

BEAUTY'S ARROW

Pulchritudo vulnera

This last drawing in the Teen Center is of St. Thérèse of Lisieux. During Covid, I read her autobiography and found her story and her spirituality incredibly fascinating and comforting during that time. She was also very young when she died so I know young people easily gravitate to her. The process of drawing her was pretty straightforward. The only struggle was that her photo references were from the early days of photography, so they are pretty grainy and lacking clarity. I have to do some guesswork whenever I draw her.

SACRED HEART OF JESUS STATUE

In memory of the late Fr. Jonathan Bakkellund, this new Sacred Heart of Jesus statue stands near the reliquary as a visible sign of the Church's love and devotion to the Heart of our Redeemer. As people pass by it in prayer, may they give glory, honor, and reparation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, asking Him to draw hearts closer to Him. May this monument also remind us to trust in His Sacred Heart's protection and loving patronage for our parish.

HOLY HOUR, EXPLAINED!

A holy hour is the practice of spending one hour's time in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament, praying and meditating on the agony of Jesus Christ. More broadly, a holy hour can also refer to any 60 minutes set aside in prayer and reflection, whether in church or elsewhere.

The holy hour devotion dates to the late 17th century, when St. Margaret Mary Alacoque received visions of Jesus Christ. In these visions, the Lord requested that St. Margaret Mary spend one hour every Thursday evening lying prostrate and meditating upon his agony in the Garden of Gethsemane. This practice calls back to the Gospel of Matthew, which tells of Jesus' desire for the disciples to "remain here and keep watch with me" (Matthew 26:38) as he awaited his passion.

Holy hours can be made privately or in community, and the USCCB has created a variety of different holy hour formats that can be found at usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/prayers-and-devotions/eucharistic-devotion.

GIVING TAKES MANY FORMS

A Stewardship Reflection

Stewardship means recognizing all is received from God and entrusted to us to share. As people of faith, we tend to God's gifts and offer them freely. St. Peter Parish is deeply grateful for the many ways our parishioners give, through volunteering, financial support, and especially prayer. Your generosity is the foundation of our parish's mission.

Many parishioners offer the gift of their time, serving as catechists, musicians, or volunteers at parish events. Others support our parish through Sunday envelopes or online giving, providing financial resources that keep our church and school running. And many parishioners give through the gift of prayer, lifting up our parish, clergy, ministries, and one another. These prayers strengthen everything we do.

Each of these gifts, whether it be volunteering, donation, or prayer is an expression of faith and trust in God. Thank you for your generosity - through these contributions, we follow Christ and bring His love to our community and the world around us.

Donna with the Holy Spirit Baptism Ministry

I have been involved with the Baptism Ministry for many years. It is a blessing to have a small part in this beautiful and joy-filled sacrament! Working with priests and deacons is an added benefit! Our role includes setting up the baptismal candles, oils, etc, welcoming families and taking a picture of the newly baptized and their families. The time commitment is only 1-2 hours after the 11:00 am Mass every 4-5 weeks. Our ministry members are always very flexible, and we can easily accommodate busy schedules! Summer already overloaded? We'd be happy to have volunteers start in September!

She Shall Be Called Woman

A PROGRAM FOR ALL WOMEN BY PARADISUS DEI

SEASON FIVE LIFT UP YOUR HEARTS

Worship is one of the most fundamental aspects of what it means to be Christian. All of creation was made to worship, and we, as humans, have an intimate connection to the call to praise, revere, and venerate. It is what we were made for. This season, dive deep into not only the practical aspects of worship, but more importantly, recenter your deep longing to pour out your heart fully to the Lord. Make no mistake: authentic worship is not always easy. However, the fruit it bears is unlike anything we can experience in this world.

FOX VALLEY CATHOLIC BIBLE STUDY FOR WOMEN

Paul's Letters from Prison

The Fox Valley Catholic Bible Study for Women will be studying Paul's Letters from Prison this fall. While imprisoned several times in defense of the gospel, Paul wrote letters to several Christian communities encouraging and guiding them. These letters (Philippians, Philemon, Colossians and Ephesians) cover topics such as joy, unity of the church, reconciliation, and God's eternal plan. Although written over 2000 years ago, these letters still offer guidance as to how to live a faithful Christian life.

We will be meeting on Thursday mornings from 9:00-11:00am at St. John Neumann Parish (2900 E. Main St, St. Charles) from September 17th to November 19th. A Zoom option is available.

The $30 fee includes the study materials. Scholarships are available.
Children ages 2 and under will stay with their mothers in a special small group.

Registration is on our website fwvbiblestudy.org. Registration forms can also be obtained by emailing us at fwvbiblestudy@att.net or by calling Kathy at (630) 370-4629. Please register early.

We hope you will be joining us for this interesting study!
