A EUCHARISTIC PEOPLE: THE JOURNEY CONTINUES
A JOURNEY THROUGH SACROSANCTUM CONCILIUM — PART XIII

In recent weeks, we have studied the Holy Mass with the aid of Sacrosanctum Concilium, the constitution on the Sacred Liturgy passed by the Second Vatican Council.

The first step was to consider the reason why the Mass is important. We found that the liturgy is not just one of the many activities the Church carries out; it is the "summit toward which the activity of the Church is directed" and "the font from which all her power flows" (Sacrosanctum Concilium, 10).

We realized that active participation involves more than carrying out a visible ministry; it means giving our hearts, minds, bodies, prayers, and lives to Jesus Christ.

We considered how Christ is present, namely, in the assembled Church, in the ordained priest, in the proclamation of His Word, and most especially in the Eucharist, where He is present substantially, that is to say, in His Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity.

We then went through the movements of Mass. The Introductory Rites bring us together as one people. Christ speaks to us in the Scriptures. We respond with faith in the Creed and charity in the Universal Prayer. We offer our lives, together with the bread and wine, on the altar. The Eucharistic Prayer leads us to participate in Christ's single sacrifice of Calvary, made present sacramentally. The Church helps us prepare for Holy Communion in humility by proclaiming the Lamb of God. We receive Christ and are then sent forth to glorify the Lord through our lives.

In the end, we considered how sacred music, silence, beauty, and reverence help reveal the mystery we celebrate. Now our work is to continue putting this knowledge into action in our worship at Sunday Mass.

From Understanding to Encounter

We can learn a great deal about the Mass without letting the reality change us: knowledge and study matter. The Church wants us to understand the sacred rites, but that understanding must lead to an encounter. This series has aimed not only at giving more information but also at helping us realize what is already taking place every Sunday:

Jesus Christ is real, alive in His Church, and waiting for us.

Jesus gathers us together as a family. He forgives us our venial sins in the Confiteor, preparing our hearts for Mass. He speaks to us in the Scriptures and through the Priest. He receives the offering of our hearts along with the bread and wine. He makes His sacrifice present. We are drawn into eternity to worship with the Saints and Angels in Heaven. He gives Himself to us in the Eucharist. It is His greatest gift. Then, He sends us into the world to bring the gift we have received to our home, work, and recreation.

Ask Jesus to help these truths move from your head to your heart.

Come with Expectation

Our preparation for Sunday begins before we enter the church. If we approach Mass as an obligation to complete, we may experience it as a burden. If we approach it merely hoping to be entertained, inspired, or emotionally moved, we may leave disappointed. But if we approach it expecting to encounter Jesus Christ, everything changes.

We can prepare by reading the Sunday Gospel beforehand. We can reflect on the past week and identify what we need to place upon the altar. We can examine our consciences and, when necessary, seek the Sacrament of Reconciliation. We can pray for a deeper hunger for the Eucharist.

Before leaving home, we might pray: Jesus, help me recognize You at Mass today. Speak to my heart. Receive my life. Make me more like You. Amen.

We don't come to Mass because we have it all together, but because we need the Lord. We come with our gratitude, wounds, struggles, and sins, but filled with desire for deeper conversion. We bring our family, worries, hopes, and joys. We come filled with the expectation of meeting Jesus, who waits for us with great love.

Active Participation - bringing our offering

At every Mass, Jesus offers Himself completely to the Father for us.

Our participation becomes fruitful when we join our lives to His sacrifice. Sacrosanctum Concilium teaches that the faithful should offer the Divine Victim to God and learn to offer themselves with Him (SC 48).

A little preparation before Mass will help us offer our hearts, minds, and lives to the Lord. We can also bring specific prayer requests, sufferings, struggles, families and friends, daily work, hidden sacrifices, and acts of service. Ultimately, we try to offer everything to the Lord as the priest offers the bread and wine.

Let us be grateful for the week we have finished and the week ahead.

When the priest says, "Pray, brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father," remember what you brought. Notice we are offering to the Lord both my sacrifice and yours. Jesus will unite your offering to His own. Nothing given to Him in love is wasted.

Listen as a Disciple

Listen as one who desires to learn. A disciple is a learner. When the Scriptures are proclaimed, listen expecting that Christ desires to speak personally to you. He may console you, challenge you, reveal His love to you, bring someone to mind, or reveal a sin He wants to forgive in confession.

God will give us a phrase or word to carry into the week. Listen for it. A disciple does not listen merely to acquire information. A disciple listens to follow.

Here is a prayer to open your heart to what He wants to give: Jesus, what do you want me to take with me this week from the Scriptures or homily?

Say Your "Amen" with Your Life

We say "Amen" many times during the Mass. Each "Amen" means, "Yes, I believe. Yes, I accept. Yes, let it be so." The Great Amen concludes the Eucharistic Prayer. It expresses our assent to Christ's perfect offering to the Father. Our "Amen" before Holy Communion professes our faith that the Host is truly the Body of Christ.

Our "Amen" must continue in how we live throughout the week. Our lives reveal whether our "Amen" on Sunday was sincere.

Guard the Sacredness of Sunday

Sunday is not merely the end of the weekend. It is the Lord's Day. It is the weekly celebration of Christ's Resurrection and the foundation of Christian life.

The world will always offer reasons to place something else first. Work, sports, travel, entertainment, and endless responsibilities compete for our attention. Many of these things are good, but none can replace the Eucharist. We do not attend Sunday Mass because God needs us. We attend because we need Him.

When I drifted from going to Mass and it was no longer a priority, I lost who God was, who I am, and what life is about. When this occurs, we often become absorbed by the demands of the world and lose sight of eternity.

At Mass, our lives are placed back in their proper order. God is worshiped. Christ's victory is proclaimed. Our sins are confronted by mercy. Our suffering is united to the Cross. Our hope is renewed. We receive the Bread of eternal life.

Making Sunday Mass the immovable center of life and family teaches children something no classroom lesson can replace: God is first, and we belong to Him.

Become What You Receive

The saints understood that the Eucharist is not given merely to comfort us but to transform us. When we receive Jesus in the Eucharist, we become more like Him and more perfectly united to His Body, the Church. Little by little, this transformation happens over time.

The Eucharist forms us into people of thanksgiving rather than entitlement, sacrifice rather than selfishness, communion rather than isolation, and mission rather than complacency. Becoming a Eucharistic people is the only way to live this life well and live for Heaven.

Conclusion

The conclusion of this series is not the conclusion of our discovery of the Mass. The mystery is inexhaustible. Even a lifetime is not enough to comprehend the gift God places before us.

Every Mass the Lord reveals more to us. Closely connected to Mass is Eucharistic Adoration. We are blessed to have a perpetual adoration chapel at St. Peter's. Sign up for an hour a week to sit with the Lord, or stop by for 10 or 15 minutes when you can. The intimacy of prayer in the chapel is heavenly. It is the best place to pray, discern, and encounter Jesus.

Finally, I leave you with a prayer for Eucharistic renewal.

A Prayer for Eucharistic Renewal

Lord Jesus Christ,
You gather us around Your altar,
speak to us through Your Word,
offer Yourself to the Father,
and feed us with Your Body and Blood.

Open our eyes to recognize You.
Free us from distraction and indifference.
Teach us to worship with faith, reverence, and love.

Receive our joys, our sufferings,
our work, our families, and our entire lives.
Unite them to Your perfect sacrifice.

Give us a deep hunger for the Eucharist.
Transform us into what we receive.
Make our parish a community of prayer, communion, and mission.

Bring home those who have wandered away,
strengthen those whose faith is weak,
and send us forth to reveal Your mercy to the world.

May every Mass draw us more deeply into the life of the Father, through You, His beloved Son, in the unity of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Prayers,

Fr. Browning

Adoration: The Panis Angelicus Chapel is devoted to Eucharistic Adoration. Located adjacent to our Parish Office on the west side of the church, the chapel is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week for anyone who wishes to spend time with Jesus. GIVING GREENER

Are you trying to cut down on the paper you use? Is the check you write to our parish one of the few checks that you write anymore? You can give greener by using our online giving program.

Simply go to our parish website at www.stpeterchurch.com/giving or use the QR code to set up online giving.

You can set up the amount that you would like to give on a schedule that meets your needs and you never have to worry about writing another check, forgetting your envelope, or having cash in your wallet.

Our parish greatly appreciates all those who choose to give in this manner as it helps us maintain a consistent cash flow and pay all of our bills in a timely manner.

FOOD PANTRY

Next Distribution: Wed. September 23rd

The Food Pantry is open from 8:00 am–11:00 am, and 5:30 pm–7:00 pm. Everyone is welcome with an ID.

September is Hunger Action Month. Please consider donating to help build a future where no one goes hungry.

Food donations can be placed in the bin outside the Food Pantry doors on the west side of the parish center, or in the collection boxes at the east and west entrances of the church.

Tax-exempt monetary donations are also welcome. Please make checks payable to "St. Peter Community Food Pantry" and mail them to 1891 Kaneville Road, Geneva, IL 60134. Donations can also be placed in the collection basket during Mass or dropped in the mail slot at the parish center.

For the month of September we are collecting:

Tea bags
Canned tomato sauce
Fruit cocktail
Baking mixes
Baking essentials (baking soda, powder, chips, sugar, etc.)

We thank our neighbors at the Shepherd's Heart Food Pantry of Chapelstreet Church for their generous donation of frozen chickens! Thank you for sharing and your generosity!

One man's trash is another man's treasure!

In this case, home items collecting dust or packed away in a closet could have a big impact on your neighbors in need. The local Catholic charity, St. Vincent de Paul (known for his sacrificial service to the poor), is requesting donations such as gently used kitchen and dining items, home decor, books, furniture, jewelry, and art to sell in its charity thrift shops located in Geneva and Aurora.

The shop and warehouse, operated by fellow parish volunteers, sell donated items with all proceeds benefitting local neighbors in need of assistance such as clothing, rent or utility support, medical expenses, linens, and other basic necessities. Each parish has a team of volunteers who assess the needs of community membersa nd then provide referrals to St. Vincent de Paul for financial assistance or goods and services including volunteer home visitors.

MAKE A DIFFERENCE! DONATE LOCAL.

As you commence fall cleaning or purging the homes of family members, please consider donating items no longer needed to St. Vincent de Paul. All items, with the exception of furniture, can be dropped off on the porch of the St. Vincent de Paul shop, Déja Vu, at 427 S. 4th St., Geneva (Victorian house on the corner of 4th and South Street).

Please email furniture donation photos to dejavu01@comcast.net for approval to be dropped off at the St. Vincent de Paul warehouse, 911 Sullivan Rd., Aurora or for possible pick-up. Your help in serving the most needy in our community is appreciated. Thank you!

"Charity is the cement which binds communities to God and persons to one another." - St. Vincent de Paul

FROM THE DESK OF…

Elizabeth Gonella and the Welcome Ministry

Our ministry helps people feel valued and included and gives them a better understanding of all our amazing church has to offer! When we are involved, we feel more connected and we build a stronger church family. I enjoy welcoming new parishioners through the Welcome Ministry. The people that attend have the opportunity to meet each other, our priests and deacon and start making friends and connections. As we walk around the campus, we talk about parish history, how St. Peter has evolved over the years and the beautiful artwork, windows and gardens on our campus . I have received a lot of positive feedback about the ministry, especially that when joining a large parish, it is easy to get lost in the crowd. I encourage everyone to get involved in the many ministries St. Peter has to offer.
We would like to host our Welcome Ministry at additional Masses. If you have a welcoming heart and want to help others get to know St. Peter Church, please reach out to evangelization@stpetergeneva.org

LAZARUS HOUSE MONTHLY DINNER

Looking for Volunteers!

On the first Sunday of every month, St. Peter Parish provides a monthly dinner for the guests of Lazarus House Homeless Shelter in St. Charles. We use our mealtrain.com website for volunteers to easily sign up to bring a dish or other part of the meal for the coming months, including opportunities to serve the meal.

https://mealtrain.com/w1yw3q

All the instructions are on the site and we update the site as their needs change. The process is easy! You make the food in your home, or purchase the food, and drop it off at Lazarus House during our designated Sundays before 6:00 pm. Or, if coordinated ahead of time, I could pick it up at Mass that morning!

NEW NEED!
Lazarus House needs freezer meals! The shelter relies on frozen meals whenever they run low on food, or a volunteer is unable to bring a scheduled meal. There is no need to schedule a frozen meal ahead of time. Just bring it to Lazarus House, Door #1, whenever you have an extra store-bought item or a homemade dish!

Feel free to contact me with any questions!

ORDER OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

NEW OCIA SESSION BEGINS!

Wednesday, October 7th

Do you have friends or family members who have mentioned they are interested in exploring the Catholic faith?

St. Peter has an inviting process where people can learn more about the Catholic faith in a relaxed setting. The process is called Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA).

Candidates for OCIA are:

- Those who were raised in another faith who would like to become Catholic
- Those who were baptized Catholic and want to be Confirmed and/or receive Communion
- Those without a faith tradition who are looking for a spiritual home

The first session is Wednesday, October 7th, 7:00-9:00 pm in McLoughlin Hall.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS FUNDRAISER

Last week, St. Peter School's Student Council hosted a $1 dress down day. Our students raised over $180 which was donated to the Knights of Columbus to support their mission of helping people with intellectual disabilities. Students also created a mural of flowers with messages celebrating differences which was displayed on the wall in the Mcloughlin Hall. St. Peter students were excited to support the Knights of Columbus and the event was a great opportunity to teach them about generosity and service to others.

St. Pius of Pietrelcina, known as Padre Pio, was born Francesco Forgione in Italy in 1887. He joined the Capuchin Franciscans at 15 and took the name Pius, or "Pio," in honor of Pope Pius I. He was ordained in 1910, and at this time he received the marks of stigmata, the wounds of Christ.

Many faithful came to see him at the friary; his days were long, beginning with Mass at 5 am, then hearing confessions all day with breaks to bless the sick.

SEPTEMBER IS SUICIDE PREVENTION AWARENESS MONTH

As Christians, we are all called to carry each other's burdens. No one is meant to live in isolation. We are called to live in community, to lift each other up, and to shine the light of Christ to each other.

This month, let's take time to check in with our loved ones, those with mental health challenges, and members of our community.
