CALLED AND SENT: BECOMING MISSIONARY DISCIPLES

Part IV: Learning to See with the Heart of Jesus

Last week we looked at how missionary discipleship grows through prayer, conversion and the sacraments. As we get closer to Jesus something shifts in the way we see other people. Look at what happens when Jesus meets a crowd. St. Matthew tells us he is moved with compassion because the people are in distress and utterly without a shepherd (Matthew 9:36). He sees them as weary, burdened, and wounded. Every missionary disciple has to learn that compassionate gaze.

Evangelization starts with realizing that each person is deeply loved by God.

This is harder than it sounds. We form impressions very quickly on the basis of first appearances (looks, political views, impatience, non-attendance at church, etc.) and those impressions can then become all we see.

Yet every individual has a story we don't know. The adult child who no longer goes to Mass may have a whole host of questions unasked. The impatient parent may be utterly drained. The quiet person sitting alone may be in the midst of grieving. We find all of these things by giving people space to speak and listening with loving attention.

Benedict XVI says that friendship with God enables us to see our neighbour through the eyes of Jesus Christ. We can learn to love someone we might otherwise find difficult because we start to see that person through the lens of Christ's love (Deus Caritas Est, §18).

The Jesus and Zacchaeus encounter is a lovely example. The crowd knows Zacchaeus as a tax collector and a sinner. Jesus calls him by name and says 'Come down, I want to stay at your house.' The fact that Jesus is going to the house of a sinner is what opens the door to Zacchaeus' repentance and making restitution (Luke 19:1-10).

Jesus sees the man in need of mercy and the man who can be changed by grace. His love calls Zacchaeus to a genuine response.

We can ask for that very same attitude. If we're concerned about someone's distance from the faith we can take that concern to prayer and say "Lord, help me to understand this person. What weight might he or she be under? How can I make your love more real to them?"

Sometimes the answer will be an invitation to talk about faith. Sometimes it will start with remembering a name, asking a thoughtful question, offering practical help, or simply being there in the midst of a difficult time. That kind of love is important even if the person isn't in a position to say yes to an invitation.

At St Peter it's all about how we see it. That's how it can shape our whole parish. We can see the unfamiliar face, we can make space for the family who is just finding their way, and we can go and meet someone who appears to be on their own. Each of those encounters is an opportunity to meet a person whom God loves.

The Lord has looked upon us all with mercy. As we reflect on that mercy, we can ask Him to make our hearts more attentive, more patient and more generous.

This week's missionary step is to read Luke 19:1-10. Think of someone you tend to look down on or pass over or judge quickly. Pray for that person by name and then do one thing to show them some attention or kindness (no expectation of anything in return).

Lord Jesus, teach me to see people with your compassion. Deliver me from hasty judgement, enable me to listen with patience and help me to be ready to love the people you put before me. Amen.

UNITED IN CHRIST

This year, All Saints' Day falls on Sunday, November 1, and takes the place of the usual Sunday celebration. We honor all the saints in heaven—both those officially canonized and the countless others known to God alone. Their lives remind us that holiness is our calling, too! Our regular weekend Masses will celebrate All Saints, and attending Mass fulfills our Sunday obligation; no additional Mass is required.

All Souls' Day, Monday, November 2, is a day to pray for all the faithful departed, especially the souls in purgatory who are being purified before entering the fullness of heaven. While it is not a holy day of obligation, attending Mass is a beautiful way to pray for our deceased loved ones.

Together, these days remind us that the Church is one family: the saints in heaven, the souls being purified, and those of us still on our earthly pilgrimage. This November, remember the deceased at Mass, pray for them at home, or visit a cemetery.

HONORING THOSE WE LOVE

Mass Intentions, Flames of Faith and Altar Flowers are a special way to memorialize a loved one, remember an anniversary or share a special intention. If you are interested in offering an intention stop by the Parish Center, or visit our website at www.stpeterchurch.com and use the link on the home page.

NOTE:
For Mass Intentions, requesters are limited to a total of 7 Masses, to allow more people to offer intentions.

SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

A Stewardship Reflection

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven." Matthew 5:3

Today, we pause to celebrate the countless holy men and women who have gone before us and now rest in the eternal peace of God's kingdom.

In the Beatitudes, Jesus provides us with the ultimate blueprint for a life of discipleship and stewardship. He reveals that true blessedness is not found in worldly status, material wealth, or self-sufficiency, but in a radical dependence on God, purity of heart, humility, and a desire for righteousness.

As Christian stewards, we recognize that our time, talents, and treasure are gifts entrusted to us to build up the Kingdom of God. The saints were ordinary people who faced trials similar to our own, but who chose to open their hearts fully to God's transforming grace. They used what they were given to serve others, preserve the dignity of life, and act as channels of peace.

Following Christ is not always easy in a secular culture that encourages us to focus on our own comforts. However, great joy awaits those who take the risk of living as sacrificial disciples. This week, let us look to the example of the saints and ask ourselves: How are we using our unique gifts to bring Christ's love, mercy, and light into our family, our parish, and our community?

TAX TIME...ALREADY?

The year is quickly drawing to a close! To have your gift count for 2026, please make sure it is received by December 31, 2026. Your generosity supports the sacraments, ministries, and education that are central to our parish. Thank you!

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

The prayer shawl ministry is a group that stitches lapghans and baby blankets as a physical symbol of God's love and care for us. The items are crocheted or knitted by volunteers, then blessed and labeled with a prayer card. As each fabric artist works on the blanket, they pray for the individual who will receive it. The completed creation is available for anyone who needs one, or for individuals to give to a family member or friend who could benefit from the gift of a prayer shawl.

Our ministry meets on the first Wednesday of the month from 10:30-11:30 am in the Tekakwitha Room (lower level of St. Peter Church). During that hour, we work on projects, share ideas and socialize with each other. The majority of the work on each item is done at home on your own schedule.

If you have any questions or would like one of our creations, please contact Debby Bulak. If you would like to make beautiful blankets with us, please contact Debby before attending our meetings.

God bless you!
