THE COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

1891 KANEVILLE ROAD, GENEVA, IL

FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parish Family,

The Communion of Saints: A Month of Hope and Remembrance

November opens with two powerful celebrations that remind us who we are and what our lives are about. On All Saints' Day (November 1), the Church lifts her eyes to heaven to honor the great multitude of men and women who now share in the glory of God. They are not distant figures from history but our brothers and sisters who once walked the same paths we walk today. Their lives show us that holiness is possible in every vocation—whether in family life, work, or hidden acts of charity. They inspire us to follow Christ with faith, perseverance, and joy until we, too, are gathered around His throne.

The next day, All Souls' Day (November 2), turns our hearts to those still being purified in God's mercy. The Church, in her tender wisdom, invites us to pray for the dead, confident that love can reach even beyond the grave. Our prayers, Masses, and sacrifices offered for the souls in purgatory assist them on their journey toward perfect union with God. "It is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from sins" (2 Maccabees 12:46).

The entire month of November continues this spirit of remembrance and gratitude. We are encouraged to visit cemeteries, light candles, and keep photos of our departed loved ones in prayerful remembrance. At the same time, the Church invites us to reflect on the "last things"—death, judgment, heaven, and hell—not with fear, but with hope, for we believe that Christ has conquered death and opened for us the gates of eternal life.

As Thanksgiving approaches, this season also calls us to gratitude—for the saints who intercede for us, for the souls we commend to God's mercy, and for the promise that one day we too shall join them in the eternal joy of heaven.

"For here we have no lasting city, but we are looking for the city that is to come."
— Hebrews 13:14

SIGNS

Of the M. Night Shyamalan movies, two stand out as my favorites. The first is Unbreakable, and the second is Signs. I want to talk about Signs, firstly, since Halloween was just this Friday it seems fitting to discuss the "spookier" of the two. And second, Signs is, at its core, less about the terrifying prospect of aliens coming to earth, and more about a religious man having an existential crisis and his relationship with his family.

There is one scene in particular where Mel Gibson's character is having a conversation with his son (played by Joaquin Phoenix) while they are watching a news report about the impending alien invasion. Gibson uses the situation to describe two groups of people. Group 1, when they experience something good in their life see it as more than luck. They see it as a sign that there is someone in heaven watching out for them. Group 2 sees that same thing as just dumb luck, turn of chance. However, for the Group 2 people since all is just luck, whatever happens to them, they are on their own. Jesus at many points in the Gospel describes a certain perception of faith that all believers need to have. Because, truth be told, God is always active and acting in the world and in our lives. But do we perceive that or not? Do we have the eyes to see the signs and miracles that the Lord is working each and every day? Too often, we can be like the Group 2 people, and think of all things as just coincidence, which is lonely and isolating way to live. It disconnects us from the God who wants to connect with us.

Now to throw nuance in this stew. Does everything that we see and experience in our life have huge profound divine meaning? Not necessarily. God works through all things; there is reason behind everything he does or permits. But the reason is not necessarily the first thing that pops into our head, nor something that we will necessarily be made aware of this side of heaven. Heavily scrupulous people tend to read God's punitive justice in all their misfortunes and that is not why misfortune befalls us nor is that the takeaway. Seeing with the eyes of faith requires a real relationship with God and healthy relationships with others who help build that faith. So that we are not reading into everything but relating out of everything. That everything we experience might be an opportunity for deeper relationship, to give God thanksgiving, petition, lament or surrender.

This week's image is a portrait of Mel Gibson's character from Signs that I drew last year. I don't really know why I drew it on notebook paper. It must have just been what I had around.

ALL SOUL'S DAY November 2nd

"...because I came down from heaven not to do my own will but the will of the one who sent me...."
JOHN 6:38

When praying the "Our Father", say the words slowly so you truly recognize what you are saying. Every day when praying this prayer, we repeat what Jesus said in the scripture passage – "thy kingdom come, thy will be done." Even though we say these words, do our actions reflect those words? This is the difference between saints and the rest of us. Saints were faithful and obedient to God's will.

Start today – start aligning your words and actions with God's will for you.

EYELASH TO EYELASH WITH CHRIST

As the hustle and bustle of the season arrives the Perpetual Adoration chapel is a wonderful space to come be with Christ. Commit to an hour a week this holiday season!

YOUTH MINISTRY

ym@stpetergeneva.org

Our St. Peter Teens

Last year, we served 98 teens during our Sunday youth ministry events, 22 teens at Summer Camp, & 18 teens at Steubenville Conference from St. Peter's in the Youth Ministry program.

Mission

We exist to help teens encounter Christ and know His voice.

We offer frequent Sunday youth ministry nights, Middle School Summer Camp, High School Steubenville Conference, and ECHO Peer Ministry Team for our 8th-grade & High School Teens. These experiences bond our teens together & cultivate true belonging in their Church community. We aim to teach our teens to hear & know Jesus's voice through prayer.

We could use your help!

We are always in need of adult volunteers who act as role models of living out the Catholic faith for our teens. When adults invest in the faith of teens personally, those teens are more likely to continue practicing their Catholic faith in adulthood.

Our Needs

- Help us set up for our events - Sundays 5-6 pm (not on holiday weekends)
- Manage the check-in table - Sundays 5:40-6:15 pm (not on holiday weekends)
- Small Group Leaders - Paired up with another leader, you will receive all the materials and training you need each week - Sundays 5:30-8:30 pm (not on holiday weekends)

When do youth ministry events take place?

Most Sunday evenings! Please check out the Bulletin each week & email Emily Delaney at ym@stpetergeneva.org to be added to the Flocknote.

HESED HOUSE VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Wednesday, November 5th

Hesed House is a shelter in Aurora that provides homeless individuals and families with a place to sleep and food to eat. Six times a year (first Wednesday of every other month), St. Peter provides and serves an evening meal and breakfast. We also prepare and distribute a sack lunch for those at the shelter.

Our next date of service is: Wednesday, November 5th, 2025.

Contact Mary Callahan, (630) 881-6136 or callahmf@yahoo.com with questions!

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

Wednesday, November 5 - 10:30am

The prayer shawl ministry is a group that stitches lapghans, shawls, and baby blankets as a physical symbol of God's love and care for us. The items are crocheted or knitted by volunteers, and then blessed and labeled with a prayer card. As each fabric artist works on the blanket, they pray for the individual who will receive it. The completed creation is then available for anyone who needs one, or for an individual to give to a family member or friend who could benefit from the gift of a prayer shawl item.

Our ministry meets on the first Wednesday of the month from 10:30-11:30 in the morning in the Teckawitha Room (lower level of St. Peter Church.)

If you have any questions or would like one of our creations, please contact me. If you would like to make beautiful blankets and shawls with us, please contact me before attending our meetings. God bless you.

WALKING WITH MOMS IN NEED

THANK YOU! Our hearts and our shelves are full! Thanks to the incredible outpouring of love and generosity from our St. Peter Parish Family, we now have a healthy inventory of items to share with our moms in need. As such, we are no longer in need of additional donations from our wish list. We will generate a new wish list as needs develop, so please watch this space for future requests.

We wholeheartedly thank everyone who contributed to or supported our baby shower in any way and humbly ask you to pray for this ministry along with everyone we will be serving in our parish and community. If you become aware of any moms who need assistance, please send them our way! May God bless you as you have blessed this ministry and, most importantly, our moms in need.

CURRENT VOLUNTEER NEEDS

As we grow this ministry, we have an immediate need for volunteer “companions” to walk alongside our pregnant and parenting moms in need so we can ensure that women who find themselves unexpectedly pregnant, or parenting under difficult circumstances, can turn to St. Peter Church and receive assistance.

Our primary areas of focus are:

1. Maintaining and sharing a list of local ‘helping’ resources that are available to moms in need
2. Walking with moms offering peer support, companionship, and authentic Christian friendship throughout the motherhood journey
3. Providing material assistance in the form of basic baby/toddler items
4. Educating parishioners about what we offer, so everyone can refer moms in need to us

If you would like to receive Flocknote updates about this ministry or get more information about our volunteer opportunities, please email walkingwithmoms.stpeterRLM@gmail.com with your request.

DID YOU KNOW? Beginning this Fall, a monthly Mass will be offered ‘for the Sanctity and Protection of Human Life and for Families in the Diocese of Rockford.’ The Mass location will change each month until every parish in the diocese has participated. St Peter will be offering our Mass in 2027. More info to come...
