

THE REDEEMER RECORD

FROM THE PASTOR

"In the house of God, every member has a purpose, and each person is valued." ~ M. Russell Ballard

Dear Beloveds in Christ,

One of the greatest joys of ministry is getting to witness, again and again, how God brings people together in love and service. As the quote makes clear, every one of you has a purpose, and each of you is valued – probably more than you now. And yet, that simple truth captures so much of what I experience every day among you.

As your pastor, I want you to know how deeply thankful I am for this congregation and for each person who calls this church home. I can't Epiphany, which always falls on January 6, marks the arrival of the magi to the Christ-child and brings the Christmas season to a close. At Redeemer, we observe Epiphany in a couple of joy-filled ways.

The first is our Epiphany worship service, which will be held on January 4 this year. During this service, each of us will select a star with a hidden discipleship word, revealed as the star is taken down, to guide our faith journey in the coming year. It is always a joy to hear the variety of words people receive, but even more powerful is listening to the "star stories" some of our members share about how last year's words kept showing up and shaping their faith.

The second celebration takes place on the evening of January 6 with the Burning of the Greens. This brief service and bonfire is held in the labyrinth and concludes with cocoa and cookies. We are especially glad to welcome St. Francis Episcopal Church to join us for worship and fellowship this year. If you would like to bring greens to be burned, please cut them into pieces small enough to fit in the fire pit. Whether or not you bring greens, we hope you will come and be part of this simple way of marking the season's turning.

Annual Congregational Meeting

Our annual congregational meeting will be held immediately after worship on January 18. At this meeting, we will approve the budget for the coming year, elect five council members to serve 2-year terms, members of the nominating committee to serve next year, and the voting members who will attend the Synod Assembly in May. As you can see, this is a very important meeting, and we hope that you will all plan to attend and be an active part of deciding how Redeemer will move forward. If you are interested in a leadership role or want more information concerning serving on Church Council, please Jim Heater or Nancy Goll.

possibly name everyone or every way you contribute in a short note like this, but I hope you know that what you offer truly matters. Some of what you do is visible, some of it happens quietly, and some is known only to a few – but all of it helps shape who we are together. Whether you are finishing a term on council or just coming on board, teaching Sunday School, offering music, serving on a committee, praying faithfully, setting up tables, or simply being present week after week, you are part of how God's love is made real here.

Over time, I've also come to see that thankfulness is more than remembering to say "thank you," although that is always important. It is also about paying attention to and being thankful for what God is already doing among us. When we care for one another, share joy, and gather for worship, we're reminded that church isn't really about a building or a schedule. It's about a community being shaped, little by little, by gratitude and love.

What makes this congregation so meaningful is that much of our life together is shaped in small, easily missed moments—conversations in the narthex, hands helping without being asked, quiet prayers, and people checking in on one another during the week. These simple acts form the character of this community and quietly shape the way we live our faith day to day. I'm also thankful for the ways this congregation continues to grow—not just in numbers, but in compassion, openness, and a genuine desire to serve. There's a spirit here that welcomes new people, stays connected to the world beyond our walls, and remains open to what God is doing in and around us. That spirit is something I don't take for granted, and it fills me with gratitude for each of you.

What I hope you take away from all of this is simply that you are valued, you belong, and your presence matters. Whether you feel right at home here or are still finding your place, you are an important part of this community, and it's easy to see God's work reflected in the ways you care for the people around you.

Serving and growing with you means more to me than I can easily put into words. Thank you for sharing your lives and your journeys of faith with me. It is truly an honor to serve as your pastor, and I am so grateful for you – today and always.

In Christ's Love,

Pastor Lynne

Yep! It's right around the corner. When cleaning out those garages and closets, don't throw any items away that can be used for the sale. We will be opening up storage for items later in the year. If there is something that must be gotten rid of before then, please see Jodi. We appreciate if the items are clean and in working condition. No clothes please.

We would like to thank you for all your love and the generous Christmas gifts. It is a blessing to be here with all of you.
