VII. Communications

Caleb Conover, KDLA Regional Consultant for the South-Central Region, provided numerous updates affecting the library. The Trustee Manual is now back on the website. The new Emergency Preparedness Plan is awaiting approval. An IMLS grant has been made available for a national study of library trustees. And several House and Senate bills are on the table including Senate Bill 71, changing how library trustees are chosen and appointed, House Bill 171, changing audit requirements and House Bill 182 prohibiting the word free in a description of a benefit, product or service financed by public funds.

VIII. Director's Report

Director Pruitt was pleased to announce an $850 donation to the Dolly Parton Imagination Library from the South-Central Rotary Club. She also shared that the Bookmobile stop at Bethlehem Baptist Church will be replaced with a stop at Hillview Terrace. Due to impending snowy weather, the staff will not be attending the KPLA Spring Conference this week. Preparations continue for Preschool Palooza, funded by the Green River Childhood Collaboration. The Valentine's Day party with Mickey and Minnie Mouse was a tremendous success, with over one hundred in attendance. And last, but most importantly, the audit went well and is now complete. The final report will be ready soon.
