Greetings!

Welcome to the June issue of The Tooker Take – a quick look at what we're doing on the campaign trail, what we're hearing from voters, and what's up next.

A Campaign Milestone

It's official! I accepted the nomination as the Republican candidate for Comptroller at the Convention on May 15th. It's truly an honor to have the unanimous support of the delegates and the party. Watch my acceptance video here: Acceptance Speech

In the News

Last month, I laid out my case for why I'm running, and what I plan to do as State Comptroller. It represents the first of many efforts to come as I take my message of fiscal accountability to the CT voters. You can read the oped HERE .

Building on that message, I recently joined Gary Byron in the studio for a fantastic conversation on the Talk of Connecticut on WDRC. It was a wonderful opportunity to dive deeper into the core pillars of my campaign: restoring true fiscal accountability, increasing transparency, and ensuring your hard-earned tax dollars are working for you. Getting to discuss these critical issues on air is exactly what this campaign is about, connecting with residents and bringing real solutions to the table. A huge thank you to Gary for having me on, and you can listen to the full episode HERE (find me 20 minutes in).

Fundraising Focus

Over the next few weeks, I'm laser-focused on reaching the fundraising threshold to qualify for public financing. I'll be making calls and holding fundraisers non-stop until we qualify. If you, or someone you know would be interested in hosting or attending an upcoming fundraiser, please let the campaign know!
