REFLECTION

August 3, 2025      Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Times

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

We can all easily relate to that scene from books, plays, or movies called “The Reading of the Will.” A group of people are gathered in a lawyer’s office to hear him read out the terms of what a deceased supposedly “loved one” has decided for his inheritors to receive. We picture the expressions on the faces. Some are tearful. Some are dry-eyed and intense.

As the narration progresses, the expressions change. One thing for sure: any scowls among them mean we’re in for some rough scenes ahead. Some mayhem; maybe even murder. And it’s all about m-o-n-e-y.

The theme of today’s Scriptures is all about the foolishness of making much ado about financial wealth. In a culture like our own, complete with the “haves” and the “have nots,” we know that for many people money matters are the only “matters” that matter! Therefore, it’s almost “un-American” to agree with Christ’s perspective, which He makes clear in the parable He tells us today.

So, the cultural question becomes “Who is right?” Do we rush to extremes to justify our own outlook, whatever that may be? Proffer such lame excuse as “I work hard for my money and I can keep it all if I want to,” permitting one to hold back from donating any of it? Or “the Church is always asking for money and that’s not right for any religious group”? This, even when the need the Church is trying to meet, is to help fellow human beings in dire straits?

In other words, we are adept at finding reasons to keep a tight grip on our wallets and purses. Sometimes our observations are on target when truths emerge about funds deliberately mishandled by so-called charitable organizations like Churches. But it all comes down to the cold fact that we can’t take it with us. As the late Billy Graham put it, “You never see an armored car behind a hearse.”

Another less obvious but certifiable fact: we all have a scheduled appointment with our Maker that we cannot cancel or avoid. He is the one who preached the parable we hear today, and He will be running the meeting.

One of God’s many characteristics is that of generosity. He made us all from nothing and gives us everything our eyes can see, and our brains imagine. So, there’s no doubt about His generosity. What about yours and mine? Here’s a helpful little ditty that can make you smile and decide:

“Do your givin’
While you’re livin’;
Then you’re knowin’
Where it’s goin’.”

God love you and give your His generous Heart.

The St. Gabriel's Conference of St. Vincent de Paul is looking for volunteers to join our members in drawing nearer to Christ by serving the poor in the Marlboro and Morganville communities. The Vincentian vocation is centered around home visits that allow for those in need to remain anonymous as they share their emotional, spiritual, and financial needs during person-to-person contact.

We serve in hope as a network of friends, inspired by Gospel values, growing in holiness and building a more just world through personal relationships with and service to people in need. If you are considering your role in God's Plan to lead others with love, generosity, reconciliation and inner peace in the Risen Christ, please reach out to

The St. Gabriel's Spiritual Adoption program is underway. The purpose of the Spiritual Adoption Program is to encourage prayer for all mothers-to-be, especially those considering abortion, that they will respond to God's grace and welcome their child into life, to educate about the development of the pre-born child, and provide mothers in need with a 'baby shower' at the end of the program.

Our child has now completed it's sixth month of development in the womb.
Here is the update for our child:

Week 25 - Baby can now respond to light & sound.

Week 26 - Our baby is growing rapidly and preparing for their new life outside the womb. If born at this stage, our baby has a 50% chance of survival with medical care.

Week 27 - Baby exercises by moving and kicking inside of mommy.

Week 28 - Baby is now about 15 inches and weighs about 3 pounds.

Week 29 - Baby's brain continues to develop.

Quotes from the Founding Fathers are said before each decade. We pray for each and every state. We sing our beloved Patriotic Songs. We pray for our US Military (Active and Veterans), our Police, Fire Fighters, Rescue Workers, Border Control, and all who risk their lives to protect us. We also have time for special petitions.

Please come and join us—our country needs you and all of your prayers.
