ANCHORED

HEBREWS 6:19

We had a very successful Scandinavian Bake Sale on December 6th, 2025!

A huge THANK YOU to everyone that helped us prepare for it. It takes many moving parts from the shopping, mixing ingredients, baking, and finally to the packaging! We had a great number of yummy treats donated for the sale also.

Thank you also to those who donated food items for the lunches and coffee time! It is such a relief to not have to worry about lunch when the kitchen is busy for the day!

Despite the cold weather, we had a lovely Advent Tea on November 30th. Thank you to Miriam Circle for being Hostess.

The 2026 Women's Ministry booklets are available on the kiosk in the Fellowship hall.

Our next General meeting will be January 13th at 12:00. Please join us for lunch, (provided by the Officers) and a short business meeting.

☀️ Faith in Action of Monroe County Is Looking for YOU! ☀️

Need a little help getting to your doctor’s appointments?
Could you use a hand picking up groceries or tackling small projects at home?

Have some yard work that needs doing?
Or maybe you’d simply enjoy a friendly conversation with someone who cares?

Faith in Action of Monroe County is here for you!
Our volunteers are ready to lend a hand, brighten your day, and make life a little easier—one caring connection at a time.
If you or someone you know could use a helping hand, we’d love to hear from you!

Greetings,

We are fully into the Christmas season! Decorations are hung, and the church and our homes are looking more festive as Christmas Day approaches. This is a wonderful time of year when we share the love of God by spending time with family and giving gifts to show our love. It is so easy for all of us to get “wrapped” up in this joyous time, spending time with our friends and families. This is also a perfect time of year to continue to embody our mission. Sharing the birth of Jesus with others is a great way to connect and grow in faith. Countless organizations and people need help with donations, sorting things, and providing services. While it’s important for us to celebrate, remember that God had the angels appear to the shepherds in the darkness of night. Not simply to surprise, but so that Jesus’ birth would shine bright in a dark world and the news of his birth would spread! “And the angel said to them, “Fear not, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people” Luke 2:10.

Finally, some reminders. On January 25th, our annual meeting will take place; your attendance is important in ensuring we have a quorum to vote on various items. Our voting member list is generated through attendance records, so please continue to sign in when you attend church. Further, we still have a need for members to serve on the Church Council. Serving on Church Council is a great opportunity to serve the church and congregation from a unique standpoint. Your role is to guide the church to work on our mission statement, Connect. Grow. Serve. Please contact a council member or pastor if interested.

Blessings, Scott Conzemius

BAKE SALE TOTALS

The Bi-Annual Scandinavian Bake Sale raised a total of $4825.75. The proceeds go to the Women of Gloria Dei, and they vote on how to disperse the funds at their January meeting. Thank you everyone for your help in making this another successful Bake Sale!

OFFERING ENVELOPES

The 2026 offering envelopes are now available for pickup in the Fellowship Hall. Please recycle your 2025 envelopes, as giving numbers change each year, and using an old one could mean that your offering does not get recorded properly. If you do not wish to receive offering envelopes for 2027, please contact the office.

FELLOWSHIP COMMITTEE

*Despite the cold and snowy day, we provided an Advent Meal on December 10th.

*We had a successful Cookie and Milk Social after the Sunday School Christmas program!

Thank you to all the cookie bakers.

*Watch for upcoming fun Fellowship events in 2026!

Anything But Convenient

“After Jesus was born in Bethlehem in Judea, during the time of King Herod, Magi from the east came to Jerusalem and asked, ‘Where is the one who has been born king of the Jews? We saw his star when it rose and have come to worship him.’”

(Matthew 2:1)

It’s January. With the shortest day of the year behind us, some find this stretch of the calendar cold and dark. Yet Scripture repeatedly reminds us that God often does His boldest work in unlikely seasons and less-than-ideal circumstances.

This is the time of year when the Church remembers the Magi—wise men who followed a star to Bethlehem. Their journey was anything but convenient. It would have been costly, time-consuming, and dangerous. One can’t help but ask: what kind of people would leave comfort and security behind to chase a mysterious light across unfamiliar terrain? Interestingly, no other historical records from the time of Jesus’ birth mention a star like the one Matthew describes. Astronomers (not astrologers) have suggested several possibilities near the time of Jesus’ birth: a supernova, Halley’s Comet, or a rare conjunction of Jupiter, Saturn, and Mars that would have appeared as a single, brilliant light. Whether the star was one of these phenomena or a uniquely supernatural sign, we cannot say for certain. What we do know is this: God used it to draw the Magi to His Son. Matthew does not describe these travelers as kings, but as magi—a Greek term referring to learned men or oriental scholars. Over time, the Church came to view them as kings, largely because of the gifts they brought: gold, frankincense, and myrrh. These gifts echo Psalm 72, a royal psalm that proclaims, “May the kings of Sheba and Saba bring gifts; may all kings pay him homage” (Psalm 72:10–11).

Their titles matter far less than their obedience. At great personal cost, the Magi followed the light they were given. And though their understanding may have been incomplete, their gifts demonstrated remarkable insight. Gold honored a king. Frankincense acknowledged divinity. Myrrh—used for burial—hinted at suffering and sacrifice. Somehow, they grasped that this child was more than a ruler; He was the Redeemer the world had long awaited. Here’s the challenge of this story: How willing are we to follow the Son of God? Have we quietly set boundaries on how far we are willing to go, or what we are willing to risk, in response to His call?

New opportunities are before us. I invite—and challenge—you to join in. As we enter this new year, may God find us faithful to reflect His light here in Tomah.

Keep and Live the Faith
Pastor David Dahl

RESOLUTIONS IN CHRIST

A blessed New Year to you! As the calendar flips and we all pretend we're absolutely going to stick to our resolutions this time, I thought it might be good to talk about some Christian resolutions—those small, habits of faith that help us grow, even if we occasionally trip over our good intentions on the way to the refrigerator.

January always feels like a fresh sheet of paper. It's a natural time to ask: What habits help me stay rooted in His grace? Not "What would make me a perfect Christian?"—That list would be unmanageably long, and Jesus has already taken care of perfection for us. I mean what are some simple practices that give God just a little more room to shape our days.

As Paul writes, "Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has passed away, behold, the new has come." (2 Corinthians 5:17). A new year doesn't magically make us new people—but Christ does. So...

1. Dust off your Bible—literally or figuratively.

Try reading a short daily passage, maybe from a Gospel. If the Bible feels intimidating, start small. God doesn't hand out gold stars for reading Leviticus at 6 a.m. without coffee.

2. Pray for one thing each day.

Just one. That's it. A person, a joy, a worry, your neighbor's noisy dog—whatever's on your heart. You might be surprised how that one moment of honesty with God steadies the rest of the day.

3. Come to worship even on the "I'd rather stay in my pajamas" Sundays.

Gathering as God's people strengthens us in ways we rarely expect.

4. Practice small mercies.

Forgive quickly. Speak kindly. Hold a door. Send a note. Luther said our daily vocations are holy callings, even the ordinary ones. God does beautiful things with small acts of grace.

5. Remember the Gospel is not a self-improvement program.

Resolutions are good, but they don't save us. Christ has already claimed us, loved us, forgiven us, and renewed us—long before our January motivation fades by February. If you fail at your resolutions, welcome to the club. God's mercies are new every morning, not just on January 1st. And if you do keep one or two habits that draw you closer to Christ and neighbor, thanks be to God for that, too.

May your new year be full of grace and a few holy habits that help you recognize God's presence in the everyday.

Blessings on the new year.

Pastor Kay
