In today's Gospel, we are reminded of the importance of being a good neighbour and caring for one another, as we hear the fate of the rich man who ignored Lazarus at his gates. Our faith calls us to open our eyes to the needs of others, to share what we have and to support one another in difficult times. In this way, we can work together towards a better world and a movement of hope. CAFOD is part of Caritas, the global Catholic aid network that brings love, hope and practical help to our neighbours experiencing poverty. More than ever in this Jubilee year, we can join together with this worldwide Church network and offer our support and prayers where they are needed most.
