2026 Sedalia School District Foundation Distinguished Alumni

Janet Wear-Enlow to be presented with 2026 SSDF Distinguished Alumni Award

The Sedalia School District Foundation Alumni Committee is proud to announce Janet Wear-Enlow as the recipient of the 2026 Distinguished Alumni Award. Wear-Enlow will be presented the award and speak to members of Smith-Cotton High School Class of 2027 at a ceremony on Thursday, October 8, 2026, at 11 a.m. in the Heckart Performing Arts Center. All are invited to attend.

Janet Wear-Enlow graduated from Smith-Cotton High School in 1979. While at Smith-Cotton, she was a cheerleader (co-captain her senior year), active in Speech and Debate, Student Council, orchestra, and was a radio announcer. She has a Bachelor of Science in Mass Communications from the University of Central Missouri. With more than 35 years of experience in marketing, communications, public relations and business development, she has an extensive list of professional accomplishments. Her civic leadership roles and activities include volunteer work with more than 20 non-profit and charitable organizations.

Wear-Enlow is currently the Director of Business Development for SSM Health in Mid-Missouri. She is the former Chief Marketing Officer for Jefferson City Medical Group, one of Missouri's largest independent multi-specialty groups. For nine years she was Adjunct Professor at the University of Missouri School of Journalism for the Strategic Communication Capstone Course. The first 14 years of her career, she worked as a video producer creating award-winning corporate communications content.

Janet is a community connector. She was the fourth woman in 118 years to serve as Board Chair for the Jefferson City Area Chamber of Commerce. Janet also served as Board Chair for United Way of Central Missouri and co-chaired the community campaign, which raised a record sum. She served for three years as chair of the Fund Allocation committee for the United Way. During her term the organization added three new partner agencies and distributed record-setting funds to non-profits. She is past Board Chair of the Boys and Girls Club of Jefferson City and continues to be an active board member. Janet is Vice-President of the Board of Directors for St. Nicholas Academy, a faith-based residential learning facility to help children reach their fullest potential. Janet is also a past Board member of the Jefferson City Area YMCA and currently serves as a Trustee. Twice she co-chaired Mission JC, which is a morning of worship through service by coordinating nine churches, over 600 volunteers and over 60 projects. Janet is a past President of Zonta Club of Jefferson City and was instrumental in creating the Women of Achievement Yellow Rose Luncheon in 2000. Funds from the Luncheon have provided more than $400,000 in Second Chance Scholarships to women seeking to further their education. She has chaired the Luncheon twice and served on the steering committee since its inception.

Some of Janet's professional accolades include the Jefferson City Area Chamber of Commerce Chairman Award; "Live United" United Way of Central Missouri Volunteer of the Year Award; Women in Communication Springfield, Mo. chapter Member of the Year; second place for her video production in the Catholic Health Association of the United States Spirit Award; Communicator Award of Distinction; Women in Communication's Best in the Midwest Award; and numerous Missouri Hospital Association "Show-Me Excellence" Awards. Wear-Enlow says, "You are never too old to make new friends, try something new, or get involved. You learn so much from being an active volunteer in your community and pass on your life experiences as well."

20th Annual Sedalia School District Foundation Golf Tournament

Monday, June 29th, 2026 at the Sedalia Country Club sponsored by Dugan's

As the Foundation's largest fundraiser of the year, the tournament brings together businesses, alumni, and community members to support programs that benefit Sedalia students and schools.

Proceeds from the tournament help fund initiatives such as Dual Credit Scholarships for Smith-Cotton High School students pursuing college credit at State Fair Community College while still in high school, as well as alumni engagement programs and special community events.

Participants may choose from start times of 8 a.m. or 2 p.m., with a cookout lunch served at 11 a.m. The four-person scramble entry includes a cart, range balls, skins and mulligans, golf polo, prizes, and lunch for each player.

Businesses, alumni, and community members are invited to enter a team or become a sponsor. Player entry is $125 per person totaling $500 for a four-person team. Individual sponsorships begin at $100, while sponsorship packages that include a four-person team begin at $600. Please see the sponsorship packet for additional details.

Team entry and sponsorship forms are available on the Foundation's website at sedaliasdf.org/annual-golf-tournament or scan the QR code. For more information, contact the Foundation office at 660-829-2562 or email Sedalia200.Foundation@gmail.com.

25 Years of fundraising with Major Saver

The 25th Annual Major Saver campaign wrapped up at participating Sedalia schools in May. It was another great success! We appreciate the support of the 22 local businesses featured on this year's card. Thank you to the students, staff, and families of the Sedalia School District for your continued engagement with this program!

Although the 2026 campaign is over, cards are still available for purchase if you're interested. Visit our website at <https://www.sedaliasdf.org/major-saver-card> to purchase cards online or contact the Foundation office to get yours today! Cards purchased online will be mailed directly to you.

Thank you to the Sedalia School District #200 Teachers and Staff

The Sedalia School District Foundation Board of Directors thanks the staff of the Sedalia School District #200 for generously donating over $9,000 during the SSDF 2026 Payroll Contribution campaign. The Payroll Contribution campaign takes place in October of each school year. Your participation demonstrates the staff's commitment to the Foundation's mission.
