2025 WOMAN OF THE YEAR

Christina Watson Meier Founder and Principal Attorney Meier Law Firm, PLLC Active Leader in the Community

Christina Watson Meier is the founder and principal attorney of Meier Law Firm, PLLC, where she brings equal parts intellect, empathy, and grit to every client relationship. With a firm belief that "it's not just business, it's personal," Christina has built a practice grounded in trust, compassion, and the power of human connection.

Since launching her solo practice in 2005 and founding Meier Law Firm in 2011, Christina has remained steadfast in her mission to deliver practical solutions while making the legal process as clear and stress-free as possible. Her strength lies not only in her legal acumen but in her ability to truly listen—understanding not just her clients' legal needs, but their personal goals and the challenges they face.

Christina's success is rooted in her quiet determination and a strong moral compass. She consistently champions others without seeking recognition—offering her time, expertise, and resources to those in need behind the scenes. She has cultivated a workplace where her team feels empowered, supported, and encouraged to lead with both professionalism and purpose.

Her commitment to community service is an extension of who she is. Through both personal action and firm-wide initiatives, Christina supports organizations that uplift women, expand educational access, and combat poverty. She does not just donate—she shows up, she leads, and she makes change happen.

Christina earned her Bachelor of Arts from the State University of New York at Albany and her Juris Doctorate from Northeastern University School of Law in Boston. She is admitted to practice in all New York State Courts and the United States District Court for the Northern District of New York.

When she isn't advocating for clients or investing in her community, Christina finds restoration in the outdoors—whether it's kayaking a quiet river or hiking a rugged mountain trail with her husband, Steven, and their son, Reece.
