The most common question asked of us is what do I do when my loved one has passed away?

1. Get a legal pronouncement of death. If no doctor is present, you'll need to contact someone to do this:

If the person dies at home under hospice care, call the hospice nurse, who can declare the death.
If the person dies at home without hospice care, call 911.

2. Have the hospital, hospice or other care provider contact us at the above phone numbers and we will then begin care of your family.

When a family member has passed away, one phone call to the funeral home will begin our care of your family.

You may select only the items that you desire and except in certain special cases, embalming is not required by law. Embalming may be required; however if you select certain funeral arrangements, such as a funeral with a public viewing. If you do not want embalming, you usually have the right to choose an arrangement that does not require you to pay for it, such as a direct cremation or immediate burial. However, any funeral arrangements that you select will include a charge for our basic services and overhead. If legal or other requirements mean you must buy any items you did not ask for, we will explain the reason in writing on the statement we provide describing the funeral goods and service you selected.

PAYMENT TERMS

- ☐ It is the policy of Heritage Funeral Home that payment of goods and services is required at the time that arrangements are made. Payment is due before obituary notices are placed in newspapers/online.
- ☐ For your convenience we accept cash, personal checks, debit or credit cards(Visa and MasterCard) cashier's checks, and verified insurance assignment.
- ☐ The total bill will be due when making arrangements with Heritage Funeral Home for services. Failure to make payment may place services on hold and incur an unanticipated LATE CHARGE of 1.5% per month on the unpaid balance that will be strictly enforced.
- ☐ You have the right to choose only those goods and service you want. There are a few major differences between burial and cremation options. Burial will require the purchase of a cemetery space, a monument/marker, cemetery opening/closing fees and in some certain instances an outer burial container. Cremation may require these if you choose to place the cremated remains in a traditional burial space including niches. Both choices require the purchase of a container for the deceased and both choices can be done with or without any viewing or visitation and with or without any public/private ceremony.
