Fifth Sunday After Epiphany
Preparation

CHIMING OF THE HOUR

PRELUDE “Flute Solo and Gigue” (Hwv 598 & 599) G. F. Handel

WELCOME, JOYS, AND CONCERNS Jane Garrison

MINUTE FOR MISSIONS Alice Smith

INTROIT “We Have Seen” R. Steven Branyon
(We have seen His star in the east, and are come to worship Him, Alleluia!)

† CALL TO WORSHIP
We are salt for the earth.
We are a light for the world.
Just as no one hides a lamp away,
we will offer the world what only we can give.
In shining our lights, we will remember:
We are not the only ones with vital wisdom.
Grateful for mutual enlightenment,
we will not drown out another’s beam with ours.

† HYMN 401 “Here In This Place” (v.1-4) Gather Us In

† CALL TO CONFESSION
Into this space we bring our weights and burdens— the things we have done or not done, said or not said. Trusting in God’s mercy, let us lay down those burdens before God.

† PRAYER OF CONFESSION
Patient God, it is so easy for us to miss the point. We know how to perform righteousness; we go to church, we donate, we volunteer, but we care more about how we are seen than our faithfulness to you. We show off our piousness, instead of actually sharing our food, our homes, our resources with those in the most need. Have mercy on us for the ways we serve ourselves, and teach us your way, the way that leads to justice and peace. Amen.

† ASSURANCE OF PARDON
Hear the Good News: When we cry for help, God says, “Here I am!” When we ask for mercy, God grants it freely, longing for a closer walk with us. In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.
Alleluia! Thanks be to God!

† ACT OF PRAISE 582 “Glory to God, Whose Goodness Shines on Me”

† PASSING OF THE PEACE
May the peace of Christ be with you. And also, with you.
As God’s forgiven people, let us pass the peace of Christ to one another.

PRAYER OF ILLUMINATION

Saving God, source of our calling, your Word is full of power and glory. Pour out your Holy Spirit upon us so that we may receive your grace and live as your beloved children; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON Psalm 112:1-10

ANTHEM “ If Thou But Suffer God To Guide Thee” Georg Neumark
arr. Jody W. Lindh

If thou but suffer God to guide thee, And hope in Him through all thy ways,
He’ll give thee strength, whatever betide thee, and bear thee through the evil days;
Who trusts in God’s unchanging love Builds on the rock that naught can move.
Only be still and wait His leisure In cheerful hope, with heart content
To take whatever thy Father’s pleasure, and all discerning love hath sent;
Nor doubt our inmost wants are known. To Him who chose us for His own.
Sing pray and keep His ways unswerving; In all thy labor faithful be,
And trust His Word, though undeserving, Thou yet shall find it true for thee;
God never yet forsook in need. The soul that trusts in Him indeed.

May these gifts be used to lift up those who are oppressed, to bring deliverance to those who are in need, to support those who are poor, and to help those who are in trouble. Amen.

Handel, Mozart and Haydn all composed for musical clocks which were especially popular in the 18th century. These musical clocks can still be found in many castles throughout Europe. Behind the face of these decorative clocks, there were often small to medium pipe organs that on the hour, half hour and quarter hour would play rolls of music. Figurines would appear, visually entertaining the eye while the music entertained the ear. When these rolls were later studied in the 20th century, it gave the musicologists an idea of these composers' keyboard technique. Often the composers recorded these rolls themselves. It was then we were reminded of the technique of non-legato playing as a standard for early music. These musical clocks also symbolized to all who viewed or heard them of both the divine order and of our mortality. We are only allotted so much time on this earth, and we must choose to use it as wisely as possible.
