WELCOME, JOYS, AND CONCERNS Ree Dillon

MINUTE FOR MISSIONS Alice Smith

INTROIT "We Have Seen" R. Steven Branyon
 (We have seen His star in the east, and are come to worship Him, Alleluia!)

† CALL TO WORSHIP

In the sea of life's daily stress and strife,
 in the struggle to keep our heads above the waves,
 Jesus calls us from the shore:

"Follow me, and be fishers of people!"

God gathers us into new boats

built with room for friend and stranger.

"Follow me, and use your gifts with purpose.
 Follow me, and build abundant life."

We will be weavers of community, architects of justice, gardeners of peace.

Let us worship the Lord!

† HYMN 804 "Rejoice, Ye Pure in Heart" (v.1-5) Marion

† CALL TO CONFESSION

Christ calls us to follow, knowing that we are human. Jesus knows we are not perfect. He knows we will not always get it right. All he asks is that we try, learn, and try again. Let us go to God, telling how we have tried and failed, that God may teach us what we must learn.

† PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Christ, our Messiah, you call us to fish for people, but we are hesitant to leave our boats. We are afraid to let go of the things we hoard, believing they make us secure. We are afraid to put our trust in you, afraid to follow, afraid we will fail. Forgive us. Transform our fear into faithfulness, and enable us to walk with you, that we may be part of your work in the world. Amen.

† ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Behold the Good News: Just as Jesus called the disciples, so Christ calls us. Forgiven of our sin and freed to serve, let us answer Christ's call.
Christ calls us, forgives us, heals us, and teaches us. Thanks be to God!

† ACT OF PRAISE 582 "Glory to God, Whose Goodness Shines on Me"

† PASSING OF THE PEACE

May the peace of Christ be with you. And also, with you.
 As God's forgiven people, let us pass the peace of Christ to one another.

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON

Psalm 27:1, 4-9

ANTHEM "I Heard The Voice Of Jesus" arr. Lloyd Larson

(I heard the voice of Jesus say, "Come now and follow me. Lay down your earthly cares," he said, "and I will set you free," I came to Jesus as I was; I had no gifts to bring. He took my stubborn will, my pride and taught my heart to sing! I heard the voice of Jesus say, "Behold, I freely give the living water; thirsty one, come now and drink, and live." I came to Jesus, and I drank of that life-giving stream; My thirst was quenched, my soul revived, and now I live for Him. I heard the voice of Jesus say, "I am this dark world's light; Look unto me, your morn shall rise, and all your day be bright." I looked to Jesus, and I found in Him my star, my sun; And in that light of life I'll walk till traveling days are done.)

† BENEDICTION

† CHORAL BENEDICTION "Arise, Shine" R. Steven Branyon
 (Arise, shine; for thy light has come.)

† POSTLUDE "Trumpet Tune is C" (from the Baroque Opera "Bonduca") Henry Purcell

Handel, Mozart and Haydn all composed for musical clocks which were especially popular in the 18th century. These musical clocks can still be found in many castles throughout Europe. Behind the face of these decorative clocks, there were often small to medium pipe organs that on the hour, half hour and quarter hour would play rolls of music. Figurines would appear, visually entertaining the eye while the music entertained the ear. When these rolls were later studied in the 20th century, it gave the musicologists an idea of these composers' keyboard technique. Often the composers recorded these rolls themselves. It was then we were reminded of the technique of non-legato playing as a standard for early music. These musical clocks also symbolized to all who viewed or heard them of both the divine order and of our mortality. We are only allotted so much time on this earth, and we must choose to use it as wisely as possible.
