2026 ELECTION READINESS WORKSHEET

LWV LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS® OF HOUSTON

2026 MIDTERM ELECTION · EARLY VOTING: OCT 19–30 · ELECTION DAY: TUESDAY, NOV 3

Polls open 7am–7pm. Early voting weekdays Oct 19–23 and Oct 26–30, 7am–7pm; Saturday Oct 24, 7am–7pm; Sunday Oct 25, 12pm–7pm.

Use this as your "cheat sheet" to take to the polls with you to help inform your ballot. You don't have to fill in every line. Voting in some races and skipping others is completely normal, and your ballot still counts.

STEP 1 · FIND YOUR DISTRICTS

Do this at home. It takes two minutes, and you only do it once.

Look up your address at Harrisvotes.com/voter/whats-on-my-ballot, then write your district numbers in the boxes below.

Once these are filled in, every race inside this worksheet is one you actually vote on. Nothing to scan past.

U.S. Representative District		State Senator District
State Representative District		State Board of Education District
County Commissioner Precinct		Justice of the Peace Precinct

County Commissioner is only on the ballot in Precincts 2 and 4 this cycle. If your precinct isn't one of those, leave that box blank.

MY VOTING PLAN

The day I plan on voting: _____

BEFORE YOU GO

Photo ID is required to vote in person in every Texas election. If you can't get an approved ID, bring a supporting document such as a voter registration certificate or a current utility bill and an election official will help you complete a form so you can still vote. Any Harris County polling place can be your polling place. Some races on your ballot are uncontested — those candidates' responses can be found online at vote411.org.
