2022 Lillie's Collection
Guenoc Valley
Bourbon Barrel Petite Sirah

GROWING SEASON NOTES

The 2022 growing season began with a dry winter and early bud break, setting the stage for a fast-paced vintage. A warm, consistent summer followed, with heat spikes in late August accelerating ripening. Careful vineyard management was essential to maintain balance and protect fruit integrity during these critical weeks.

VINEYARD NOTES

Grown in our estate's Guenoc Valley vineyards, where fractured volcanic soils rich in magnesium yield low-vigor vines and concentrated fruit. Our valley consistently produces Petite Sirah with deep color, blackberry character, polished tannins, and remarkable balance.

WINEMAKING NOTES

The Petite Sirah grapes were hand-harvested and destemmed to tank for fermentation. Once completed, the resulting wines were aged on oak for nine months before assemblage. After racking to blend, the Petite Sirah racked to heavily charred Bourbon barrels for three months to marry prior to bottling

TASTING NOTES

This Bourbon Barrel Petite Sirah has notes of plum, baking spices, and cigar box. Dark cherry and caramel throughout, with a clean, concentrated midpalate and fine-grained, energetic tannins.
