As part of our agreement with you concerning implement sales we agree –

- 1) that your self billing invoice will be the only tax invoice raised for the transaction.
- 2) that we will account to Customs and Excise for the amount of V.A.T. on sales shown on the invoice.
- 3) that we will inform you immediately if, for any reason, we cease to be registered for V.A.T. or are issued with a new V.A.T. registration number.

We understand that this arrangement applies only to payment of goods sold under implement sales and does not affect the tax point of other supplies made by us.

Are you registered for V.A.T

YES/NO

If YES please state V.A.T. Registration Number

By entering goods for sale you agree to accept and be bound by Implement sale terms and conditions, copies of which are displayed on our notice board and available from our office on request and agree that, under the terms of the Consumer Protection Act, any goods entered for sale are fit for purpose unless otherwise stated in writing at the time of entry. All unsold items must be collected within 14 days of the sale, after such time no liability will be accepted for missing or damaged items. Items consigned to this sale which are not sold and have not been removed from the premises prior to our next sale may, at the Auctioneer's discretion, be sold at the next sale with no reserve. The Auctioneer will make every effort to pay the Vendor two weeks after the sale, but shall be entitled to rescind the sale in respect of any lot or lots for which full payment is not made in due time or which have been found to be unfit for purpose. Such lots will be returned to the Vendor.

New data protection regulations come into force in May 2018, commonly known as GDPR. We have updated our customer privacy notice, which explains how we use any personal information we collect about you. To enable us to ensure the efficient and successful running of an auction, it is necessary for us to hold and process personal information about the seller.
