"Well fleshed hoggs continue to surpass vendors expectations and are returning premium prices to their pockets. However with the inflated trade, there is a temptation to draw sheep to early and presenting them lean, this was the case today which hindered the overall average. Well finished sorts were every bit as clear as last week however the leaner end would be easier. Ewes met a monumental trade especially for export types which culminated in a phenomenal average of £110 for mainly on lean show of hill ewes. More are required to satisfy buyers demand."
