

Brenda Ann

Bio

Brenda Ann is a fine artist specializing in luminous watercolor paintings inspired by coastal landscapes, architecture, and timeless places. Her work blends delicate detail with a soft, atmospheric palette, creating scenes that feel both elegant and inviting. Drawing inspiration from travel, classic design, and natural beauty, Brenda's paintings celebrate storytelling through environment and emotion—capturing moments that feel nostalgic yet fresh. Brenda Ann holds both Associate and Bachelor's degrees in Fine Arts. She earned her Bachelor of Fine Arts (in Visual Arts with a concentration in painting) from Stockton University. She served as President of the Florida Keys Watercolor Society for six years, during which time she won multiple awards and chaired two of their annual exhibitions. Her acclaimed work has been exhibited throughout the United States, including at the National Watercolor Society's Juried Exhibition (NWS Gallery, San Pedro, California, 2017), the American Watercolor Society's Juried 2025 Online Associate Members'

Exhibition, and the Wayne Art Center in Pennsylvania, where she achieved Signature Status with the Philadelphia Watercolor Society in 2018. Her notable achievements include Best in Show at the 37th Annual Judged Exhibition of the Florida Keys Watercolor Society in Marathon, Florida, in 2019. Brenda Ann has been featured three times in Culture Magazine (Key West).
