

DIANE GEORGE
Photographer

Artist's Bio

Diane George is a designer and educator whose passion for wildlife inspired her to pick up a camera. Trained as an architect and city planner and later as an elementary school educator and zoo docent, Diane developed a passion for documenting the natural world through photography. Her work has been shown in galleries and exhibitions nationally and internationally.

Artist's Statement

My passion for wildlife and the natural world led me to photography, allowing me to tell the stories and advocate for their survival in an ever-changing and rapidly developing world. I strive to capture the moment of connection between the subject and its environment. Nature is always in motion and my goal is to preserve those moments, allowing them to resonate with the viewer.