

Lydia Congiu

Statement

My art practice is a journey through different mediums, including paint, ink, photography and mosaics using glass & tile. Each piece is a response to the world around me. The use of diverse materials allows me to build a multifaceted portrait of my surroundings, with each medium contributing a different voice to the story.