

Maria Domenica Regina Lupo

Statement

My creative process is stimulated by various and unusual materials. Transcending the use of traditional materials my work includes such materials as: topsoil, teabags, fabric, faux flowers, recycled materials.

Each Series (2-D or 3-D) is influenced greatly by the power of myth and fairytales in an effort to create and understand my own biographical journey thru these universal stories and themes.