BIO

Liz Nicklus is an award winning painter, mixed media and mosaic artist living in Vineland, NJ. First and foremost a colorist, her mixed media paintings, assemblage and mosaic installations consist of patterns unified by complex color relationships. Her work contains images, textures and elements from numerous sources. She has completed numerous public art projects using alternative materials, in particular the 65 foot mixed media mosaic mural "Oceans of Reflection" at the AtlantiCare Regional Medical Center in Atlantic City. In 2022, she won an Honorable Mention award in Artist Magazine's Best of the Best competition in the abstract/experimental category.

Nicklus studied at Stockton State College, Fleisher Art Memorial, with Pat Witt at The Barn Studio of Art in Millville, and with Philadelphia mosaic artist Isaiah Zagar. She was Discover New Jersey Arts featured artist in April 2004. She is past chair and one of the founding members of the Riverfront Renaissance Center for the Arts in Millville, and served on the Board of Directors of the DaVinci Art Alliance in Philadelphia. She has taught painting, mixed media and mosaics throughout Philadelphia and southern New Jersey, and has been a guest instructor at the Studios of Key West in Florida. Her work can be seen in public and private collections throughout the world.
