

Xiong Wang

Statement

I'm a book sculpture artist who transforms discarded books into intricate art. Through cutting, folding and twisting, I give new life to forgotten pages, creating sculptures that celebrate literature and challenge how we see books.