

JAPAN 2027

30 APRIL - 14 MAY

CELEBRATING 60 YEARS OF YOU ONLY LIVE TWICE

WELCOME TO JAPAN, MR BOND

Of all the countries James Bond has visited in the past 64 years, Japan still stands as the most exotic. Its cultural heritage, so different not only from that of the West but also from that of the rest of the East, together with its turbulent history filled with samurai, kamikaze pilots and two devastating atomic bombs, makes Japan one of the most interesting countries you can visit.

Back in 1966/67, it was considered exotic, unspoiled and unknown enough to send 007 there on his latest mission. Today, six decades later, these things can still be said of this beautiful country.

Now YOU have the chance to join us in Japan for a once-in-a-lifetime trip, visiting all the locations used in EON's 5th Bond film YOU ONLY LIVE TWICE.

From Tokyo to Kagoshima, this will be a trip you will never forget!

KYOTO, home of the geisha, is a must-see, as this is the only Japanese city not bombed during WWII. From here you will visit Tanaka's ninja training school: Himeji Castle.

DAY 7-9

WELCOME TO TOKYO!

Agents will meet & greet at the Tokyo New Otani and will enjoy a guided tour through the city. Plenty of free time as well to get accustomed to this amazing country and vibrant city.

DAY 1-3

WAKAYAMA will be reached by Shinkansen, or bullet train. From here you will visit Nachisan, one of the most remote Bond locations. Did I mention the ninjas? Prepare yourself for a great adventure!

DAY 5-6

NAGASAKI, with its Dutch trading post and atomic bomb museum will be something you won't forget easily. Hop on board to visit Dead Island, as seen in Skyfall.

DAY 10-11

KAGOSHIMA is often called the Naples of the Orient. Overlooking the mighty Sakurajima volcano, you'll be staying at the Shiroyama Hotel, where cast & crew stayed during the filming in 1966. From here we will visit volcanoes, deadly caves, Tanaka's home and Akime, where 007 went undercover as a Japanese fisherman.

IMPORTANT NOTICE REGARDING YOUR FLIGHTS:

Your Japanese adventure will start on Friday 30 April at the New Otani Hotel in Tokyo, where we will meet in the late afternoon for a briefing... and drinks at the SKY bar, or Mr Osato's office. Our first tour day is Saturday 1 May.

The tour officially ends in Kagoshima's Shiroyama Hotel, 1,350 km southwest of Tokyo, on Friday morning, 14 May, after breakfast.

A return trip to Tokyo is NOT included, simply because there are several options for you to choose from. Careful planning is the key. Please consider the following options while planning and booking your flights:

- Many international airlines offer free transfers between Kagoshima and Tokyo when combined with an international outbound flight. When searching for available flights, just search for inbound flights TO Tokyo (either Tokyo Haneda or Tokyo Narita) and outbound flights FROM Kagoshima.
- Another option is to pre-arrange your own connecting flight directly from Kagoshima to Tokyo. Various domestic airlines offer this one-way trip, costing between US$ 60 – US$ 100 p.p. / € 55 – € 90 p.p. extra.
- Your third option is to return to Tokyo the Connery way: by Shinkansen or bullet train. It's an 8-hour journey, which will cost around US$ 290 / € 250 p.p.

Whatever you choose, please allow yourself enough time to get to the airport, so that you do not miss your connecting flight home.

Also, do note that Tokyo has TWO international airports: Haneda (20 km from the city centre) and Narita (75 km from the city centre). Please connect at the right airport. :-)

If you have any questions regarding your return trip, feel free to contact me at info@onthetracksof007.com
