A MESSAGE FROM YOUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

I recently found myself outside, kneeling in the dirt with the best of intentions to “get a jump on spring.” Armed with gloves I wasn’t sure had ever met soap, and a trowel that’s seen better days, I set out to conquer a small patch in my yard’s corner that felt as vast as the Grand Canyon—mostly because the work ahead looked just as intimidating.

This year, I’m trying a new approach with two of my favorite flowers—lavender and poppies. Year after year they start out bright and hopeful—lush green and full of promise—but under my watch, somehow morph into scraggly, sunburnt survivors. No matter how hard I try, I can’t seem to get these beauties to thrive. Past years had me rushing home from the garden center, grabbing the shovel, and excavating holes with the precision of a caffeinated mole. I’d water those delicate little green hopefuls with the enthusiasm of a fire hose and fertilize like I was trying to grow a forest overnight—perhaps drowning and chemically burning them all at once.

Then I stumbled on a video where a woman explained that the secret to lavender isn’t obsessing over the plants after planting but properly preparing the sandy soil before doing so. The next part she demonstrated carefully. She backed away carefully, turned around and began the last part of caring for her lavender: just leaving be those precious petals with pugnacity.

That new perspective made the whole process feel a little more manageable—like finally learning that the garden will grow at its own pace regardless, even if I can’t always see it happening.

And that’s when it hit me—gardening, much like life, isn’t about perfection or instant success. It’s about showing up, doing what we can, giving our best, and finding joy in the process—even when things get messy or don’t go as planned. Sometimes those messy, imperfect moments teach us that stepping back and letting things unfold without interference is both the most difficult yet most rewarding part of the journey—and that’s beautiful!

You know what else is beautiful? The volunteers who give their time, energy, and heart to this community. It’s Volunteer Appreciation Month, and we want to take a moment to celebrate these everyday heroes who help our garden—our community—thrive.

So, thank you—to every volunteer, every resident, and every family—for being part of this journey with us. We’re all growing together, in all the wonderfully messy ways that make life worth it!

Sincerely,
Gina Pope

MEADOWBROOK BAPTIST CHURCH ABUNDANT LIVING CHOIR FILLING THE HARBOR WITH JOYFUL SONG!

CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

The month of April in the Bible is called Nisan which signifies the first month of the Hebrew sacred year. It represents a time of new beginnings, making the Exodus from Egypt, the institution of Passover and the spring barley harvest. We look forward to the blossoming of the beautiful flower, budding of the fruit trees and nature coming alive. Of course, April showers bring May flowers, the days are growing longer and winter is getting further behind us. God has blessed us so much and His love and mercy has been showered upon us. Let us count our blessings and purpose in our hearts to serve Him with all our ways. Pray for those who haven't yet come to know the Lord as their savior, pray for the sick and those who are most in need. A little "love" goes a long way.

"A new commandment I give unto you, that ye also love one to another." John 13:34

May God Bless,
Chaplain Mike

RHONDA LEATHERS
A Life Stitched with Family, Faith & Creativity

Rhonda Faye (Wilkins) Leathers is a woman whose life is stitched together with family, faith, and a whole lot of heart. Born on March 2, 1957, in Florala, Alabama, to Randall and Doris Wilkins, Rhonda's story took shape down south before settling into the sandy streets of Pensacola, Florida. That's where she grew up, shared childhood with her younger brother Randy (who arrived nine years after her), and attended every grade from elementary through high school.

After graduating from Pensacola Christian High School in 1975, Rhonda set her sights on business studies at Pensacola Jr. College of Business. It was there, in a classroom full of textbooks and ambition, that she met Mitchell Leathers—the man who would become her partner in life. The two tied the knot on March 18, 1978, at The Faith Temple Assembly of God of Pensacola. Pensacola was home as Mitch finished college, but soon after his graduation in 1979, opportunity knocked in St. Louis, Missouri.

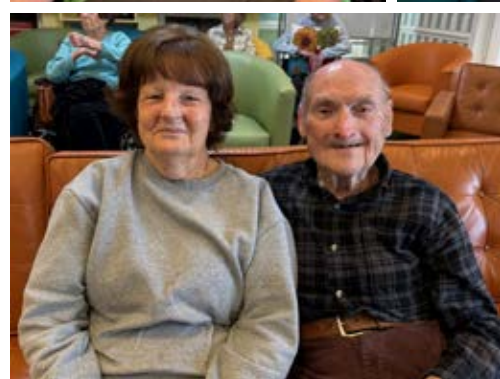

St. Louis became the backdrop for the next 8 ½ years—a city where Rhonda poured her energy and compassion into caring for four-year-olds at three different daycares, and where both of her daughters, Somer and Leann, were born. When Mitch's company offered him a new position, the family packed up for Decatur, Alabama, where they spent a dozen years. Rhonda found her calling at the Calvary Assembly of God Day Care, while Somer went on to graduate from Hartselle High School.

In 2000, the Leathers family made their final move to Jacksonville, Alabama, following another job opportunity for Mitch. Rhonda continued her work with children, caring for four- and seven-year-olds at The First Methodist Church's Daycare Program. Later, she embraced a new chapter, working for Sears for nine years until the store closed its doors. Jacksonville became the place where Leann graduated from high school, and where Rhonda and Mitch put down new roots.

Family remains at the heart of Rhonda's world. She delights in visits back to Pensacola to see loved ones, and her four grandchildren—Addyson, Riden, Bryant, and Anna Leigh—bring her endless joy. When she's not spending time with family, Rhonda's creative spirit shines through in her love for arts and crafts, especially the handmade felt Christmas stockings that have become a cherished family tradition.

If you cross paths with Rhonda, you'll find someone who's woven together life's moves and milestones with warmth, creativity, and a deep devotion to the people she loves.
